PASTOR TO TALK ON OAKLAND CAFES

Facts About Night Life to Be Subject of Rev. A. W. Palmer.

Facts about the cafe life of Oakland will be discussed by the Rev. Albert W. Palmer in the course of his evening sermon at Plymouth church next Sunday evening. Light will be thrown on the present enforcement of the Hart liquor ordinance, which he claims was written and championed by the liquor interests of this city. The speaker will also attack the sincerity and effectiveness of the reforms proposed by those interested in the anti-prohibition movement.

Wilson Congratulates on Suffrage Victory

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Expressing "a very real interest" in the extension of suffrage to women, President Wilson today wrote a letter to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National Woman Suffrage Association, congratulating that organization on its work in securing passage by the North Dakota legislature of suffrage legislation.

feature, and Charles B. Snook declaring that while he would not go to Sacramento in favor of the adoption of the charter amendment, he would take no action to oppose it.

The joint statement of Mayor Davies' committee of fifteen and the port commission follow, together with that of Harrison S. Robinson.

ATTITUDE OF COMMITTEE. "The Advisory Committee of Fifteen and the Port Commission feel that a better conception can be had by the public with reference to the proposed lease of the waterfront if a statement is made of the conditions which they suggested to be embodied in the lease. They sought in no way to thwart the will of the people as expressed by the vote on the Charter Amendment last August. That amendment stipulated certain conditions which must be made a part of the lease, but left it to the discretion of the Council to name other terms or vast importance to the city. It was with the view of aiding the Council in obtaining the most favorable terms possible for the city that they directed their activities. We believe it our duty to secure a fulfillment by the Smith interests of the anti-election promises before the people should be considered bound to the obligations imposed by the election. Through the people eventually may (through the efforts of these committees) be enabled to pass judgment on the completed lease before it is actually entered into, it could not be satisfactory to the people to have only the choice of accepting or rejecting the least desirable proposition.

"It was the further purpose of the committees to bring about conditions which would enhance the possibility of ratification of the Charter Amendment by the Legislature.

People who have expressed disappointment at the apparent withdrawal by the Smith interests of any plans for bidding on the proposed lease, do not realize that there could be no lease to bid upon without a lease to bid upon. The committees, in other words, unless the principals to the lease were known and the draft of the lease submitted there could be no hope of ratification by the Legislature, and it was so stated by the legislative delegation. If thereby the city should lose an opportunity of having its waterfront developed, it may be attributed largely to the policy surrounding the attitude of the proponents of the lease.

"The several committees working out the details of the proposed lease might have continued in harmonious co-operation had not the Smith interests meanwhile sent lobbyists to Sacramento with the statement that the terms of the lease had been agreed upon by all concerned. This compelled these committees to urge postponement of the ratification by the Legislature. This is the extent of the political 'hooking' indulged in by these committees, while the Smith interests, who are 'not engaged in politics,' have maintained a lobby in the Legislature which is reminiscent of some of the 'good old days'.

JUDGMENT OF ACTIONS. "Judgments of the actions of these committees will be faulty if based on misunderstanding or imagination. This statement of the conditions proposed by them is therefore made for the assurance that these are the main conditions urged. If there is anything deemed unfair to the possible lessees or detrimental to the city by way of restriction of its waterfront development, let us hope the judgment that so declares is not based on biased or imperfect information.

"Mr. Smith proposed to deposit $100,000 to secure the fulfillment of the lease. The committees believe this is too small a deposit on which to tie up over $2,000,000 worth of city property on a promise to expend $1,000,000 on the land within six years.

OPPOSES PROVISIONS. "Mr. Smith demanded a lease on the entire waterfront of over 6000 feet. The committees believe it to be suicidal on the part of the city to part with its entire possessions on the K. V. Route basin. These, with the 400 acres back of them, the committees believe it impossible to develop as one enterprise, to the best advantage of the city. Part of the property has already been filled at the city's expense.

"Mr. Smith proposed to pay no taxes on any improvements. The committees believe it would be unfair to the city to permit this, in addition to being a marked discrimination in the tax-free occupants under the lease.

"Mr. Smith proposed that the city bear the expense of all street and sewer work on the leased property. The committees believe the people at large should not be taxed for the purposes of this kind where the benefit accrues solely to the leased land.

"Mr. Smith offered that in the event of the city taking over the lease at the end of 50 years, he (Smith) should be reimbursed for the filling of the land. The committees contend that the filling of the land is a 'by-product' of the dredging which the lessee would be required to do as part of the $1,500,000 expenditure and that the lessee's nothing they should not be compensated by the city.

"Mr. Smith proposed a lease requiring the city to pay the net value of improvements if it desired to terminate the lease in 50 years.

"The committees believe this will virtually be made a 99-year lease by the lessees placing such improvements on the land that the city would not be in a position to take them over; the lease would then have to be extended 25 years, when the same thing would happen again and an extension be given for another 24 years.

"The committees only ask the public to consider the above facts and not base their opinions on erroneous information given out through various sources. ADVISORY COMMITTEE OF FIFTEEN. "By ROSCOE D. JONES, Chairman.

"PORT" COMMISSION. "By A. S. LAVENSON, Vice-Chairman.

ROBINSON'S STATEMENT. "A great many people of Oakland, including the members of the Port Commission, are eager to see the city's western waterfront adequately improved by private capital, provided the work can be done speedily by responsible parties and on reasonable businesslike terms. These people, including the members of the Port Commission, have no sympathy with criticism intended merely to destroy. They are equally opposed to lease boosters who in their uncritical enthusiasm would urge the city into a disastrous business transaction.

"At the present time few of our citizens have sufficient definite information to form their own opinions as to just what should be done. For the most part the published expression of opinion has been entirely partisan, and largely emotional. Witness, for example, the statement on one side that Mr. Smith proposed to pay nothing for the lease, which is untrue; and on the other side the suggestion that Mr. Smith is going to Alameda, where, under the law, the longest lease he can get is for 25 years with an option of an additional 25 years, as opposed to the 99 year which he is seeking in Oakland.

DEPLORES SPREADING UNTRUTHS. "We deplore the attempts which have been made by partisans on both sides to create a public opinion by spreading statements which are either untrue in themselves or deceiving in their implication.

"This proposed lease is one of the most important pieces of public business that Oakland has had to deal with, and Oakland is entitled to have the lease negotiated in a strictly businesslike manner, without either side introducing appeals to prejudice or passion, or making misstatements of facts or deceiving arguments.

"To do these things will result in everlasting injury to the City of Oakland and to Mr. Smith alike.

"On the commercial side, at least, Oakland has come to the end of its tether. Let everyone whose present conduct will help to destroy that condition consider carefully if the little personal gratification he is now getting is worth the price.

"The attention of the public is invited to the work being done by the Conference Group of representatives from the Committee of Fifteen and the Port Commission. Oakland can move forward in unity. It will drift backward in discord."

Move to Abandon Sub-Treasuries Lost

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The movement to abolish the government sub-treasuries in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Chicago and San Francisco was beaten in the Senate this afternoon when the motion to strike out the $468,000 appropriation in the legislative appropriation bill for the sub-treasuries' expenses next year was voted down, 45 to 15.

FERRY BOATS IN CRASH ON BAY

Thousands of Passengers Are in Peril During Collision in the Fog.

The Newark, fortunately, there were comparatively few passengers, being the light trip of the boat to this side of the bay. Both ferry-boats have been withdrawn from service as a result of the accident and are docked for repairs while the tugboat steamers have been detailed to take their runs.

Last night and this morning included a chapter of accidents for ferry steamers and bay water craft of all kinds as a result of the heavy fog, said by seafaring men to be the heaviest in years, which swept down upon San Francisco bay shortly before midnight. The fog is of the sticky kind of thick fog and is one of the most dangerous factors of navigation when it occurs.

FERRY HITS SHIP. "In its depths the Santa Fe ferry steamer San Pablo, en route to San Francisco from Richmond, became confused this morning, shortly after the collision between the Newark and the Piedmont, and went crashing into the bay. The boat was crowded with passengers at the time. The piling which guards the entrance to the slip was torn down, and the tugboat, the fog bell ripped away by the force of the smash. The boat itself escaped with only a broken flagpole and a few shattered boards.

Trouble began for the bay travelers shortly after midnight, when the fog made its first appearance. At that time more than 200 persons, including a great number of automobile parties, spent an unpleasant session on Oakland estuary, when the ferry steamer Thoroughfare of the harbor route ran aground at the foot of Broadway on its last trip from San Francisco to the city.

The boat was crowded with passengers and the like, the ferry-boat hung to the mud flats until after 2 o'clock before its cargo of Oaklanders could be landed and allowed to go to their homes. The Encinal, sister boat, which left San Francisco at 1 o'clock this morning, carrying belated theater crowds and late travelers, halted at the foot of Broadway and waited until nearly 3 o'clock this morning. On its last trip to this side of the bay. The captain was unwilling to try to pass the Thoroughfare, which he saw was jammed in the channel, and try for the Broadway landing, on account of the heavy fog which had blotted out all signal and pilot lights.

COMMITTEES DELAYED. "Many of the commuters and others delayed on these two trips spent the rest of the night sitting in the Southern Pacific waiting room at First and Broadway, and through the night the first of the early morning street cars creeping through the mists. Even here transportation was not much better, for street cars and all forms of vehicles were compelled to proceed with the utmost caution avoid collision in the heavy blanket which shut off crossings and even buildings on the opposite sides of the street.

In San Francisco, traffic was almost paralyzed during the early morning hours, especially on the hill lines, where the slippery rails still further complicated matters. Numerous accidents of various kinds due to the fog have been reported in all parts of the bay district to the various police stations and emergency hospitals, but none of a serious nature.

EDUCATOR DROPS DEAD RESENTING SLUR ON WEST

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Overwrought and excited at what he thought was a reflection on the patriotism of the Middle West, Benjamin Blewett, superintendent of the St. Louis schools, dropped dead here today at one of the meetings of the Congress of Constructive Patriotism.

A woman delegate in a committee meeting was speaking and said something which Blewett construed as a reflection on the patriotism of his section of the country. He rose and in much excitement declared he would refute the implication. His face became suffused with blood, his voice thickened, then he choked and fell to the floor.

Headquarters detectives immediately took charge of the body. It was carried to a room in the hotel where the convention is in session. About seventy persons were present at the committee meeting when Blewett dropped dead. They positively declined to make known the name of the woman speaker who so aroused the school superintendent.

Enforced Saving Is Benefit to Youths

BERLIN, Jan. 26.—Enforced saving for youthful workers, which was instituted by the military authorities a few months ago as a check to extravagance and dissipation, has resulted, in Greater Berlin alone, in a saving of more than a million and a half marks. The savings are something less than half a million marks have been withdrawn from the savings banks by the workers, a third of whom have been able to convince the authorities that they need the money for legitimate purposes.

Wealthy Woman Puts Up Fight With Officer

Mrs. Nettie Kraft Burke, a wealthy guest of the St. Mark Hotel, fought Deputy Sheriff Joseph Sorensen and Bert Brown so violently last night when arrested for not stopping to aid two men who were hurt when her auto tipped their motor. She was taken to the station and locked in a detention cell, after defying the officers. She was subsequently released on $2000 bail bond. Joseph Ryan and Henry Abbott were the victims of the highway spill.

KAISER PLANS FOR NEW PEACE MOVE

More Acceptable Terms to the Entente Expected, on Ruler's Birthday.

BY UNITED PRESS
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—That Kaiser Wilhelm plans to make his fifty-eighth birthday tomorrow the occasion for another peace movement, with more acceptable terms to the entente, was reported today from several different sources.

The nearest thing to an official hint of this plan was read in the speech made yesterday by the Hungarian premier, Count Stephen Tisza, the Hungarian premier.

"We are inclined to continue a further exchange of views regarding peace with the United States Government," was the way the Hungarian statesman put it. More than usual significance was attached today to this intimation, in view of the fact that Count Tisza is supposed to have been one of the premiers of the Central Powers who recently held conference at Berlin. The second rumor came via Switzerland. It purported to be based on private information from Germany and stated that the German Emperor planned to be the "first promoter of universal peace and would propose that all parties meet together with to discuss the first and principal article of the war's termination—the reorganization of future peace."

Reports from Holland indicate that some sort of a reply to President Wilson's Senate speech is being considered by officials in Berlin. Since the American President's peace suggestions and his plans for securing peace at the end of the war were not broached in a formal note, it is conceded that if Germany is to express her approbation of any or all of the sentiments he expressed, such approval must be made in speech of statement. A pronouncement from the Emperor would be a logical mood of answer.

The German government also expects President Wilson formally to transmit to Berlin the text of the reply made by the entente powers to his own peace note. Officially, Germany is not yet informed of what the Allies said in reply to the American

HUNGARY FOR PEACE.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent sends a Budapest dispatch giving the reply of Count Tisza to the Hungarian premier, to a question put by a member of the opposition party in parliament concerning President Wilson's address to the Senate. Count Tisza is quoted as follows:

"Pursuant to our peaceful policy before the war and our attitude during the war, as well as our recent peace action, we can only act with sympathy every effort acting at the restoration of peace. We are therefore inclined to continue a further exchange of views regarding peace with the United States Government. This exchange must naturally occur in agreement with our allies."

5000 S. F. CITIZENS DEMAND VICE KNELL

At Remarkable Mass Meeting Enforcement of Liquor and Police Regulation; Vice Commission Urged

The city authorities enforce vice, liquor and police regulations without delay. The second resolution calls for the appointment by Mayor James Rolph, Jr., of a vice commission of twenty-five representative citizens, modeled after the Chicago Vice Commission, to conduct investigations and report back to him its findings and recommendations. Mayor Rolph, it is said, will "consider" the advisability of such a move.

NOTED SPEAKERS HEARD. Last night's meeting was under the chairmanship of Warren Olney, Jr. Among the speakers were Attorney J. E. White; Bascom Johnson, executive secretary of the Law Enforcement League; Miss Drusilla Ward of the California Club, a prominent worker in the night police court; Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner of Oregon, and others. Bishop Sumner in his address outlined the work of the Chicago Vice Commission, of which he was a member, and drew a parallel between the eastern city and San Francisco in its vice conditions and need for a similar inquisitorial body to make a study and arrange a solution, if possible, of existing conditions.

None of the speakers minced words in their exposition of alleged conditions. Bascom Johnson stated openly that conditions were worse than had been stated. Hotels, French restaurants and parlor houses he declared to be the principal sources of vice in this city.

Principal hotels and apartments, such as the Hamilton, Navarre, and Bernard apartments, and the Ring, Bird, Gibson, Mason, Athens, Beverly and Porter hotels, have clerks who telephone to cafes for girls to meet the wishes of their guests," he charged. Johnson also named the Black Cat, the Midnight Follies, Spider Kelly's, the Odeon, the Portola-Louvre and Tait's among his list of centers.

Miss Ward threw a bombshell into the meeting when she declared that if it were not possible to stamp out vice as a police measure it should be allowed to flourish only in the best sections of the city where live the owners of the property rented to houses of ill-fame for improper purposes.

UNDERWORLD WOMEN HEARD. Preliminary to last night's mass meeting, three hundred women of the underworld, in their rouge and powder, bedraggled finery and tinsel finery, led by Mrs. R. M. Gamble, yesterday afternoon called upon Rev. Paul Smith and his worker in the Central Methodist Church to present their side of the case. This meeting is unequalled in the whole history of vice in the United States.

From the rostrum of the church pulpit Mrs. Gamble laid down the fallen woman's outlook upon life, her needs and desires and her entire problem of existence. In dramatic words that will remain long in the memories of her auditors. In her talk she startled the social workers present with her declaration that nearly every one of the women engaged in the tenderloin was a mother. She was working to support someone, and had been driven into a life of shame by existing economic conditions. She was borne out by a rising vote of the women present.

"Women cannot exist on the wages of $6 or $7 a week paid in San Francisco," she said. "The girls you see here are better off in houses of prostitution than they would be as individuals, because they get what little protection the houses afford them. Nearly every one of these women is a mother, working to support someone."

"You want the city cleaned up, but where are these women to go? Have you made any arrangements by which they can make their living elsewhere? In your sphere of life, are men whose sons must sow their wild oats. If these men taught their sons to respect womanhood many of the women would not be here."

GAY LIFE EXCORIATED. Mrs. Gamble also excoriated young men from the University of California with wealthy parents, who are given money which she alleged they spend in the gay life in San Francisco. She said:

"There are scores of these young men who are pampered by their fathers and given money which is used by them in visits to disorderly houses. Why not instruct these young men and boys to respect women, rather than give them money to further the debauchery of the unfortunate? The girls are most of them instinctively good underneath. Many a time I have taken a girl out of my own house because I did not think she should be there and made something better out of her. I have been conducting a disorderly house in this city for eight years and I know this life from every angle. It all resolves itself down to a spirit of humanity for your fellow beings."

FOR VICE COMMISSION. The request for the appointment of a vice commission by Mayor Rolph found its inspiration earlier in the day in a resolution passed by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, making a similar request and asking that sufficient funds be appropriated by the city to carry on the work. Supervisory appropriation was also asked to facilitate the duties of the commission.

Vice conditions were outlined to the San Francisco Center yesterday prior to the Dreamland meeting, at which Rev. Paul Smith and Bascom Johnson were the principal speakers. Both speakers dealt upon the alleged laxity in the enforcement of city laws by the Police Commission and conditions existing in cafes, hotels and downtown restaurants, where young girls could be procured without difficulty and women of the half-world are alleged to operate without restraint.

EDWARDS ALSO FACING RECALL

McMullan Files Notice of His Intention to Circulate a Petition.

W. H. Edwards, Commissioner of Revenue and Finance, is threatened with the recall in company with Mayor John L. Davies. Notice of intention to circulate petitions against the city officials has been filed by C. Stuart McMullan, "tax expert" who charges that he has disregarded his pre-election promises, that he neither knows nor is qualified to perform all the duties of his office and that he is dominated by influences antagonistic to the public welfare.

Commissioner Edwards regards the charges with amusement. "I cannot regard this attack seriously," he said. "McMullan was retained by the city council upon his promise that he would bring in large sums of money in taxes

NEW RAILWAY BILL FRAMED IN SENATE

Strikes and Lockouts Are Not Forbidden in Substitute for Adamson Law.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Railroad strikes and lockouts are not forbidden by the terms of a bill to supplement the Adamson law which the Senate Interstate commerce committee completed today.

The new bill, however, would make a criminal offense, punishable by heavy fine, for a railroad employee who has quite work to trespass on railroad property with a view to preventing by violence, intimidation or threats the operation of trains which had been overhauled but he failed to make good and was discharged. "I believe that the Oakland citizens will regard this self-serving attack of his with as little seriousness as I do. The charges are untrue."

FORMER WIFE OF "SITTING BULL" VICTIM OF FIRE

Aged Indian Woman Returns to Blaze to Save Shawl

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

FARGO, N. D., Jan. 26.—Small Woman, former wife of Sitting Bull, is dead at the Fort Berthold Indian Reservation in western North Dakota from burns sustained when fire destroyed her shack at Lucky Mound. This information was received here last night.

According to the report, Small Woman escaped from her burning dwelling uninjured, but returned to rescue an old shawl which she prized highly and her clothing caught fire.

She was a native Mandan, 80 years old. At the time of her death she was the wife of a United States Indian scout. Burial was arranged in the scouts' cemetery.

WILL NOT LEAVE STATE, SAYS BOPP

"Do Not Expect to Be Consul Again," Is Official Farewell.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—"I will not leave San Francisco, but I do not expect ever again to be consul here." This was the official farewell of former German Consul-General Franz Bopp yesterday to the members of the German Ladies' General Benevolent Society, at the annual meeting of the organization in the Palace Hotel. His successor, Dr. Erich Zoepfel, made his salutatory to the gathering.

Professor Eugene Kuehnemann of Breslau was the speaker of the occasion. He declared that German women the world over are devoting themselves with patient, every-day loyalty to the task of alleviating the heavy burdens upon the fatherland.

Sick People Sometimes Die From Lack of a Good Stimulant

Especially is this true in grip and pneumonia, for they are infectious diseases which attack weak and strong alike. Serious complications are liable to develop in the course of the disease, as grip settles in the weakest part of the system, sometimes the kidneys, the brain, the stomach or the heart, resulting often in heart failure, but the most dreaded of all, pneumonia, which is particularly fatal when arising from grip. As one able medical writer says:

"In all severe types of pneumonia there are two sources of danger—heart insufficiency, and high temperature. A large portion of deaths from pneumonia directly result from heart failure."

judiciously used is one of the most efficient means of preventing or overcoming it."

The reason it is a remarkable remedy in the treatment and relief of grip, coughs, colds, influenza, catarrh, pneumonia, and all the diseases of the throat and lungs, is that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey aids in keeping the digestive functions in healthy condition so that the body gets the necessary health and strength from food eaten—enabling it to throw off disease germs. For more than 50 years it has brought the blessings of health to overworked men, delicate women and the sickly, who find in Duffy's the strength-giving properties that are so necessary to them.

"Get Duffy's and Keep Well"

Sold in Sealed Bottles Only. Beware of imitations.

NOTE Get Duffy's from your local druggist, grocer or dealer. $1.00 per bottle. If he can't supply, write us. Send for useful household booklet free.

The Best Habit In The World is the habit of health. The way to get it is to train your bowels, through the liver, to act naturally, at a fixed time, every day.

Take one pill regularly (more only if necessary) until you succeed. Then you can stop taking them, without trouble or annoyance.

This has been the good health rule for 50 years.

Colorless faces often show the absence of iron in the blood. Carter's Iron Pills will help this condition.

STOP! CALOMEL IS QUICKSILVER

It's Mercury! Attacks the Bones, Salivates and Makes You Sick.

There's no reason why a person should take calomel when 50 cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tonic, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tonic acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.—Advertisement.

To Relieve Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Earmint (double strength), and add to it 24 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should try this prescription a trial. Osgood Bros. can supply you.

ACTRESS TELLS OF ROBBERIES UNDER PRESSURE

Many Stolen Autos Are Found After Amazing Confusion

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—From the lips of an actress, snatched from her bed at midnight and hurried to the state's attorney's office, there came tumbling today, after hours of refined third-degree pressure, a confession, which, it was declared, clinches the case against one of the cleverest bands of criminals which ever operated in Chicago.

Marguerita Nelson, the actress, talked glibly of the recent scores of automobile thefts, of safe-blowings, of the robberies of the "gold coast." Including those of George M. Reynolds, the banker, and Mrs. Patrick Cudahy, widow of the packer.

As fast as she named persons not already under arrest detectives hurried out of the building and in high-powered automobiles hastened to all parts of the city on the trail of the alleged thieves and their loot. Within a few hours they had recovered a dozen stolen automobiles and arrested sixteen of them after desperate fights.

Meanwhile steps were taken to return to Chicago from Evansville, Ind., Adam Prochowski, so-called "gentleman burglar," graduate of the University of Warsaw, Poland, and accused of being the master criminal of the gang, and Gus Zeldner, alleged to be his accomplice. The pair were arrested at Zeldner's chicken farm, said to have been the clearing house for automobiles stolen by the gang, after detectives here and in many other cities had conducted a hot search for them.

World Almanac Has Valuable 1917 Data

The fact that the year of 1916 was one of the most important in our history, and that the progress of industry and legislative progress at home, lends special value to the World Almanac for 1917, just issued by the New York World.

In the pages given to war are a chronological table of battle events abroad, the Kaiser's peace proposal, President Wilson's note to the belligerents, a list of peace societies and movements, the text of our own Army Bill, details of American preparedness plans, texts of peace treaties, and contributions to relief funds. In medicine there are special papers on anthrax and on infantile paralysis, the latter with reference to last summer's epidemic and the results of study by doctors and health experts.

The book's distinction lies in serving no special field, but in specially serving the whole field of readers' reference.

Eureka Has Epidemic of Scarlet Fever

EUREKA, Jan. 26.—An epidemic of scarlet fever here caused the Board of Health to issue an order closing public and private schools for two weeks, forbidding children under 16 attending the theaters, churches or public functions during that period, and ordering all children kept off the streets. Twenty-nine homes in Eureka have been quarantined on account of the fever. One death, an 11-year-old girl, has been reported.

WAITING-ROOM PLEA IS DENIED

Taxpayers' Association Loses Fight Made Before Rail Commission.

TRIBUNE BUREAU

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—The request of the West Oakland Taxpayers' and Business Men's Association for a waiting room at the station of the Southern Pacific main line at Seventh and Pine streets, denied by the corporation, was also refused by the State Railroad Commission in a decision rendered today. The commission says that the service is frequent, operated at regular intervals and that delays incidental to regular railroad service due to weather conditions and heavy travel do not interfere on this line.

"In fact," declares the commission, "the service is more nearly comparable to street car service than regular railroad service. In view of these facts we do not find that the request for waiting room accommodations is justified by the evidence."

Naval College Men to Serve Under Beatty

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 26.—The first graduates of the Royal Australian Naval College at Jervis Bay, who completed their four years' course this month, will sail for England next month on duty with the grand fleet under Admiral Sir David Beatty. The graduating class consists of twenty-five members, and this first instance of Australian-trained midshipmen joining the British fleet is hailed with great interest in Australia.

Governor-General Sir Donald Munro Ferguson, in an address to the graduates spoke of the honor that was theirs "to be," he said, "on the eve of joining the grand fleet, which, under Providence, is the greatest security for his majesty's arms and allies. Midshipmen have the soft side of heart. You will have a hearty welcome. Australia owes a big debt to Cook and Flinders, a debt which you are helping to repay. There could be no more acceptable contribution, and one to be judged as the first fruits of the college and of its staff. Your bearing, good manners and conduct testify to the high tone maintained, and that you are capable of the character and personality which from Nelson downwards have ever distinguished the British sea officer."

Big Profits Made by British Shippers

LONDON, Jan. 26.—In reckoning excess profits which the shipping companies will have to hand over to the government, the shipping paper Fair Play takes the amount set aside by thirty companies—namely, 23 pounds 4 shillings per ton gross total of 2,000,000 tons of steam shipping owned in this country. "This would indicate," says the paper, "that the total profits of shipping companies exceeded the datum line by about £31,500,000, equal to a dividend of nearly 50 per cent on the pre-war value of £200,000,000. But shipowners retain only about 17.5 per cent of this profit, out of which they have to set aside sufficient to cover the extra cost of building and repairs, which is now at a hugely inflated level."

Kyne Makes Answer To Author's Lawsuit

Peter B. Kyne, the author, today filed his answer to the suit brought against him by Hugh W. Dolan, in which the author declares that the manuscripts which are the basis of the Dolan suit were not sold to him but merely submitted for inspection. Dolan accused the writer of taking three stories and agreeing to pay for them after he had written them and sold them to magazines.

"Our Passengers Are Our Guests"

Carlo Bedtime Story

By HOWARD R. GARIS.

"Do you expect to be away very long, Uncle Wiggly?" asked Nurse Jane. Fuzzy Wuzzy was morning, as she saw the old rabbit gentleman starting away from his hollow stump bungalow.

"Oh, no; not very long," he answered. "I am just going out to look for an adventure, and as soon as I find it I'll come back."

"If you find anybody you want to ask to come back to dinner with you, pray do so," invited Nurse Jane. "We are going to have cabbage soup and carrot ice cream."

"Fine," cried Uncle Wiggly, for those were two things he liked best in the whole world. Then he set off through the woods, looking for an adventure.

He had not gone very far before, all of a sudden, he heard the voice of his friend, Jimmie Wiggly, the boy duck, and over his back Jimmie carried a big bag, larger even than the one that the duck boy could hardly be seen because of it.

"My! That is a heavy load for you, Jimmie," said Uncle Wiggly, hopping up beside the Wiggly boy.

"Oh, it isn't at all heavy," said Jimmie. "It is as light as a cork. In the bag are a lot of old feathers my mother and my sisters, Lulu and Alice, don't want any more. Some of my feathers are in the bag, too, and I am taking them to the factory to have them made into a feather bed, but I don't want to."

"Why not, Jimmie?" asked Uncle Wiggly.

"Because I want to go off with some of the animal boys and have fun," said the duck boy. "and if I go to the feather factory there won't be time to have any fun."

"That's so," said Uncle Wiggly. "I'll tell you what I'll do, Jimmie. I'll take the bag of feathers for you and you may run along and have your fun."

"Oh, fine!" cried the duck boy, and away he waddles while Uncle Wiggly hopped on with the bag of feathers, which were almost like a bed to the duck boy.

Pretty soon the rabbit gentleman came to a little house in the woods. He did not remember to have seen it before.

"I wonder who lives here?" said Uncle Wiggly to himself. "Maybe it is the bad old man, Aladdin, with his Wonderful Lamp or some of the other queer folk from the Arabian Nights. I must take a look."

Going closer to the little house, Uncle Wiggly suddenly heard through an open window a deep, growling voice saying:

"Somebody has been sitting in my chair!"

And then another voice, not quite so deep and rumbling, said the same thing, and next a little squeaky voice cried out:

"Somebody's been sitting in my chair, and it's all broken to pieces. Boo hoo!"

"Oh, my!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggly. "Now I know who lives in this house. These three bears and that little girl Goldilocks must be upstairs asleep in the little bear's bed. Oh, this is terrible! What can I do to get her out of here?"

Uncle Wiggly thought of the story of Goldilocks—how the pretty little girl, wandering in the woods, came to the house of the three bears when they were not home.

She tried the big bear's chair, but that was too hard; she tried the middle-sized bear's chair, but that was too soft, and she tried the little bear's chair, and that was just right, but when she sat in it, why, it broke.

And so with the porridge. One dish was too hot, one too cold, but the little bear's was just right, and Goldilocks ate that all up. Then she went upstairs to bed and slept in the bed of the little bear.

And pretty soon," said Uncle Wiggly to himself as he stooped down outside the window of the bear's house, "they will go upstairs, find Goldilocks in bed, and they'll scare her so that she'll run out of the window, and maybe break her leg or stub her nose or some other dreadful thing like that which will happen to her if I don't do it. I must see what happens. This is an adventure indeed!"

It all happened just as it does in the book, out of which Goldilocks came. When the three bears went to eat their porridge the big bear growled:

"Somebody's been eating mine!"

The middle-sized bear said the same thing and the little bear piped out:

"Somebody's been eating my porridge and they've eaten it all up!"

Then the bears went upstairs in their little house.

"And now to see what happens," said Uncle Wiggly, sort of shivery-like under the window.

He could hear the big bear speaking about some one having been in his bed, and the middle-sized bear said the same thing and the little bear squeaked out:

"Somebody's been sleeping in my bed and here she is now!"

With that Goldilocks awakened, and when she saw the three bears standing near the bed she jumped up and ran to the window. And as she did so, Uncle Wiggly had an idea.

"The bag of feathers I took from Jimmie Wiggly!" he cried. "I'll use that!"

Goldilocks can jump on that and will not sprain even her finger nail!

Quickly the rabbit gentleman reached the big bag of feathers on the ground under the window. Out jumped Goldilocks and down she plumped into the feathers just like a circus man falling in the net, and she wasn't hurt at all. And the three bears laughed and laughed and laughed so hard, to see Goldilocks bounce up and down that funny way, that they were never bad again.

And they said the little girl with the golden hair could come to their house as often as she liked and sleep in all three beds if she wanted to. And Goldilocks did a few days later.

But that day Uncle Wiggly invited her to come home to dinner with him, and she went after he had taken the feathers to the factory, and Goldilocks liked Nurse Jane's carrot ice cream very much.

And if the pair of slippers don't go off to the dance with the buttonhook and fall under the bed, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and the Seven-Mile Boots.

Princeton Professor Lectures in China

PRINCETON, Jan. 26.—Professor Robert McNutt McDowell, head of the department of history and politics of Princeton University, who came to China several months ago as the first exchange professor of thirty lectures in North China and left Peking this month for Central and South China, where he will lecture at the leading colleges.

Professor McDowell had audiences with President Li Yuan-hung and practically all the members of the cabinet, who showed much interest in the exchange professorship and expressed their gratification that the Chinese students are to have the opportunity to hear prominent American educators.

Professor McDowell will visit India and the Philippines before returning to the United States.

Japanese Compete With Dutch Firms

THE HAGUE, Netherlands, Jan. 26.—Japanese competition for the Dutch market in the Netherlands. The Japanese incandescent lamp manufacturer, which up to a few months ago was making electric pocket lamps at the rate of 100,000 a week, has been obliged to discharge a considerable part of its staff on account of such competition. Japan unexpectedly appeared on the European market this fall with these lamps offering an overwhelming quantity at a price far below that hitherto obtaining, with the result above mentioned.

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin." It's a commendable trait that when thing has been of benefit to us, we want to share it with others who stand in need of the same help. It's the touch of Nature that makes the whole world kin—the wanting to be helpful to our fellow men. That is why people who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write letters to the manufacturers about it, and ask to have them published so that others will know what to do under the same circumstances. Behind every one of these letters is the warm-hearted desire of the letter writer to do some one else. For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

tree-bordered streets, and it was exclusive to the point of stagnation. The Matland place was at the head of the main street, which had at one time been its drive. Miss Letitia, who was seventy, had had sufficient commercial instinct, some years before, to cut her ancestral acres—their ancestral acres, although Miss Janae hardly counted—into building lots, except perhaps an acre which surrounded the house. Thus, the Matland ladies were reputed to be extremely wealthy. And as they never spent any money, no doubt they were.

The homestead, as I knew it, was one of impeccable housekeeping and unmitigated gloom. There was a chill that rushed from the old-fashioned center hall to greet the newcomer on the porch, and that seemed to freeze up whatever in him was spontaneous and cheerful.

I had taken dinner at Bellwood before, and the memory was not hilarious. Miss Letitia was deaf, but chose to ignore the fact. With superb indifference, she would break into the conversation with some wholly alien remark that necessitated a reassembling of one's ideas, making the meal a series of mental gymnastics. Miss Janae, through long practice, and because she only skimmed the surface of conversation, took her cerebral flights easily, but I am more unwieldy of mind.

Nor was Miss Letitia's dominance wholly conversational. Her sister Janae was her creature, eternally snubbed and bullied. To Miss Letitia, Janae, in spite of her sixty-five years, was still a child, and sometimes a bad one. Indeed, many a child of ten is more sophisticated. Miss Letitia gave her expurgated books to read; and forbade her to read divorce court proceedings in the newspapers. Once a recent housemaid presented me from a throne-like horsehair sofa, in the back parlor. She wore a new lace cap, and was twitteringly excited.

"Our niece is here," she explained, as I took off my coat—everything was "ours" with Janae; "mine" with Letitia—and we are having an ice at dinner. Please say that ice is not injurious, Mrs. Knox. My sister is so opposed to them and I had to beg for this."

"On the contrary, the doctors have ordered ice for my young nephews," I said gravely, "and I do not on them myself."

Miss Janae beamed. Indeed, there was something almost unnaturally gay about the little old lady all that evening. Perhaps it was the new lace cap. Later, I tried to analyze her manner to recall exactly what she had said, to remember anything that could possibly help. But I could find no clew to what followed.

Miss Letitia received me as usual in the back parlor. Miss Fleming was there also, sewing by a window, and in her straight white dress with her hair drawn back and braided around her head, she looked even younger than before. There was no time for conversation. Miss Letitia launched at once into the extravagance of both molasses and butter on the colored orphan's bread and after a glance at me, and a quick comprehension from my face that I had no news for her, the girl at the window bent over her sewing again.

"Molasses breeds worms," Miss Letitia said decisively. "So does pork. And yet those children think Heaven means ham and molasses three times a day."

"You have had no news at all?" Miss Fleming said cautiously, her head bent over her work.

"None," I returned, under cover of the table linen to which Miss Letitia's mind had veered. "I have a good man working on it." As she glanced at me questioningly, "I needed a detective, Miss Fleming."

Evidently another day without news had lessened her distrust for the police, for she nodded acquiescence and went on with her sewing. Miss Letitia's monotonous monologue went on, and I gave it such attention as I might. For the lamps had been lighter, and with every movement of the girl across the room, I could see the gleaming of a diamond on her engagement finger.

"If I didn't watch her, Janae would ruin them," said Miss Letitia. "She gives me apples when they keep their faces clean, and the bills for soap have gone up double. Soap once a day's enough for a colored cap, and you smell anything burning, Knox?"

HERTZPLAYERS STREAKERS IN SYMPHONY

San Francisco Orchestra's Performance of Tchaikovsky's Sixth Symphony More Inspired Than Ever Before

Talented Musicians Emerge From Difficult, Trying Ordeal With Honors; Rollicking Overture Banishes All Gloom

By Ray C. B. Brown.

Memories of sensations are notoriously untrustworthy, but in face of the forbidding frown of the psychologist I state without qualification that the reading given last evening by Alfred Hertz and the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra of Tchaikovsky's sixth symphony was more inspired than the one presented earlier in the season, when it seemed a performance unsurpassable. Whatever the conditions may have been that conspired for a perfect rapport, the players felt intuitively and lost themselves utterly in the interpretation of the great tonal threnody.

One of the conditions must have been the warmth of the welcome which Oakland offered to the musicians from across the bay. It was a salutation spontaneous and prolonged, a greeting as cordial and whole-hearted as though the visitors had been home-coming. And in a sense they were, for a musician is at home wherever his language is understood. Moreover, we were hosts to artists whom we have hitherto journeyed to hear. This time they came to us, and our "ave at save" was no empty formula of courtesy.

ORDEAL FOR PLAYERS.

The first movement of a symphony unprecedented by another composition is a treacherous quarter of an hour, to plunge in medias res with no preliminaries save running scales is an ordeal for the players, and there is always the chance that the audience is more distracted than concentrated. Particularly in this case with so atmospheric a work as the "Pathetic" symphony. The first sombre sentence of the bassoon brings foreboding in its weary pessimism "What is born to trouble as the sparks fly upward." Hopelessly the theme is reiterated and paraphrased until gloom tinges the spirit.

The second movement is the saddest dance music ever written. Formally suave and graceful, it has an undercurrent of maddening despair. "For tomorrow we die" is the motto above those mimmers who whirl with set smiles on their faces. It is the Marche of the Red Death and the grisly presence may touch the shoulder at any moment. But there shall be merriment, even if the last strains are stifling through the hour-glass. A winter carnival succeeds in the third movement. The dawn has come after a night of horrible happiness, and the mimmers pass forth to shout their defiance at the brazen heavens. Higher and higher swells the tumult until it becomes a triumphant and barbaric proclamation of rebellion, ending in that tremendous triple thump of the tympani, that is an exacerbated and contemptuous shaking of the fist at Fate.

ROLICKING OVERTURE.

Smetana's rollicking overture to "The Bartered Bride," banished black thoughts with its peasant caperings and bucolic humor. It bridged over an awkward interval between Tchaikovsky and Max Bruch, whose first violin concerto was delightfully played by Concertmaster Louis Persinger.

The tone was at its best—a velvety, mellifluous and caressing cantabile. This Persinger can wring raucous and strident tones from his instrument I know from hearing him in the "Dance Macabre," but last night he did not yield for a moment to the temptation to force loudness in the bravura passages. The satisfaction of the audience in his artistry was shown by five recalls.

Enesco's spirited "Rumanian Rhapsody" in A-major closed the program. Beside this picture of Slavic festivity, Liszt's demoted rhapsodies seem artificial and morbidly morose. There was vividness and sincerity in the work of this young composer that carries conviction.

Reclamation Board Is Attacked in Bills

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 26.—An attack on the state reclamation board is made in bills introduced today by Senators Chandler and Duncan. Both bills aim to abolish the Sacramento-San Joaquin drainage district, jurisdiction over which comprises the main work of the reclamation board.

While in favor of flood control board to handle all water problems, Chandler and Duncan are against the proposal to have the Sacramento-San Joaquin drainage district continued even under such a board. This proposal, Duncan says, is made by S. McCleathy, president of the reclamation board who is said to have written the greater part of the water problem's conference report.

Admiral Dewey's Will Filed for Probate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Admiral Dewey's will, dated December 12, 1915, was filed today for probate. It bequeathes a life annuity of $500 to his sister, Mrs. Mary P. Greeley, and directs that a suitable stone be placed over his grave in Arlington National Cemetery. The remaining estate, of which no estimate is made, is left for the widow and his son, George Dewey Jr., who are named as executors without bond.

Assaulted by Thugs, Victim Is Near Death

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Jan. 26.—J. B. Edwards, a watchmaker, was found early today dying in an alley here, where he had been left by thugs who assaulted and robbed him last night. They took $50 from his clothing after having slugged him with some blunt instrument. His skull was fractured and physicians say he cannot recover. There is no trace of the assailants.

ROBBERS, NOT "FARES." LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26.—When A. L. Sibley, jitney driver, saw two men signaling his car early yesterday, he thought they were "fares." There was nothing fair about them, however, as they robbed him of $5.

Railway Program Must Be Cut Out, Says Lewis

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The abandonment of the whole administration railway program is the only way by which an extra session of Congress can be averted, Senator J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois told President Wilson at the White House this afternoon. Senator Lewis told the President that the western states voted for him in expectation of the enactment of the desired conservation measures, and that if these are to be put through something must be sacrificed and the railroad program seemed the most available for the purpose.

Passengers Taken Off Steamer to Orient

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Jan. 26.—Forty passengers aboard the steamer Proteuslaus, bound from Hong Kong to Seattle, were taken off the vessel by Canadian officers at Williams Head, B. C., and will be held under observation several days at the quarantine station there. Contagious disease was discovered among the passengers. The passenger quarter of the vessel will be fumigated before she is allowed to proceed to Seattle.

Union Pacific in Wyoming Storm Grip

CHEYENNE, Jan. 26.—Winter's grip shut down today on the Union Pacific Railroad between Hanna and Rock River, Wyoming, and more than twelve trains are crowding the sidings east and west of the blockade waiting to get through. Strenuous efforts opened one track between the points named for a time yesterday, and some trains got through, but the congestion today is about the same as before the line was opened.

Anti-Injunction Bill Before Legislators

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 26.—Labor's big move—the anti-injunction bill—was introduced shortly before noon today by Senator Flaherty of San Francisco. The principal provision is that no restraining order or injunction shall be granted by any court in the state in any case involving or growing out of a dispute concerning terms or conditions of employment, unless necessary to prevent irreparable injury to property. Provision is also made by which picketing would not be interfered with.

Washington Labor Leader Elected Again

EVERETT, Jan. 26.—Ernest P. Marsh of Everett was unanimously re-elected president of the State Federation of Labor at the Federation's convention here. Other officers chosen are: Secretary-treasurer, Charles Perry Taylor, Tacoma; vice-presidents, Harry Call, Bellingham; W. J. Cones, Spokane; C. D. Semple, Walla Walla; V. T. Flight Made Across Santa Barbara Channel

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 26.—With Mrs. H. B. Duryen of Redbank, N. J., as passenger, Allen Loughhead has made the first flight between the mainland and the Santa Barbara channel islands. A hydroplane was used. The distance across is twenty miles, and it was twenty-one minutes after leaving that the plane was circling over Pelican bay on Santa Cruz. No stop was made, and after going intentionally out of the course to follow a freighter, the return was made exactly in an hour, with a total distance of sixty miles.

SCHOOLS COMPETE IN PRIZE ESSAYS

Pupils Take Great Interest in Writing of Alameda County Attractions.

The essay contest for gold prizes offered to the school children of Alameda county by the Tourist Association of Central California and the Oakland Tribune, is proving very popular. In every school in the county the children are working on their compositions and each one is eager to be a prize winner.

The school superintendent and boards of education have taken a lively interest in the competition and the teachers are helping to make it the most successful contest ever held in the county. In a similar contest held in San Francisco more than 700 essays were received, but that number will probably be exceeded in Alameda county.

The Tourist Association announces that the time allowed for completing the essays has been lengthened one week to Friday, February 3, instead of February 2, as previously announced. This is to give the outlying schools more time. Any school boy or girl in any school in Alameda county is entitled to take part in the contest.

Lack of Fire Escapes Cause Thirteen to Perish

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE
NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Asserting that a sentence in Hoboken prison should teach a far-reaching lesson to factory owners and tenants who fail to provide proper fire exits, Superior Justice Capper sent Samuel Barkin to Sing Sing for from two and one-half to five and one-half years. Barkin is a partner in a shirt-making company housed in a Brooklyn building where nine women and four men operatives lost their lives in a fire because the trap door between their place of work and Barkin's floor was locked.

Sixteen Men Killed in Santiago Strike

BALTIMORE, Jan. 26.—Sixteen men were killed in a stevedores' strike in Santiago, Cuba, two weeks ago, it was reported when the United Fruit Company's steamer, Mandeville, arrived from Kingston, Jamaica. Captain Sorensen said his vessel, as many others, was delayed a week and that the crews discharged their cargoes under armed guards.

BEATEN, SEEKS POLICE; JAILED

"Broker" Discovered to Be the Betrayer of Grace Oakes; Drugs Are Found.

TRIBUNE BUREAU
883 MARKET ST.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—Representing himself to be a broker, Sam Morien, betrayer of beautiful Grace Oakes, reported to the police Wednesday night that he had been beaten and robbed in his room in the Rehampton Apartments, 419 Golden Gate avenue, by two members of the notorious "Forty Strong" gang. As a consequence of this appeal, he is himself now under arrest again charged with pandering, vagrancy and selling cocaine.

In his apartments the police found several hundred dollars' worth of opiates. They claim that he made the place headquarters for the distribution of drugs to peddlers and habitual users. Morien has been sought by the police on the complaint of Grace Oakes. She said that the man had been making persistent efforts to get her back again into his clutches. The police say that he is responsible for persuading the woman to use drugs once more after she had been cured of the habit.

BARKER SUCCESSOR COMMITTEE NAMED

Board of Education, Upon Receipt of County Opinion, Appoints Prominent Men.

Upon receipt of an opinion from Walter J. Burpee, chief deputy district attorney, that the present board of education has power to elect a new superintendent of schools prior to July 1, when three of the members will retire, the board at a meeting last evening carried out its plan of action by appointing a committee of seven prominent educators and representatives of the community to select the successor of the late Superintendent A. C. Barker.

The committee is identical with that named in a tentative list published in The TRIBUNE on January 21, and includes: Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California; Dr. Raymond Wilson, president of Leland Stanford Junior University; Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills College; Joseph H. King, president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce; Teaton H. Wland, labor representative; George Randolph, manager of the Union Iron Works; and Rev. Albert W. Palmer, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church of Oakland.

WILL SELECT SUCCESSOR.
The committee will enter upon its duty immediately with the view of selecting candidates from places outside of the community in furtherance of the board's desire to "eliminate politics" from any influence over the position. It is probable that well known eastern educators will be considered by the advisory committee. Efforts will be made to increase the salary of the officer in order to make it attractive to the highest class of educators.

Superintendent A. C. Barker whose term will expire on June 30, may not leave the department entirely, a resolution having been adopted by the board to the effect that he be tendered some other position, possibly in a new high school should one be established as the board anticipates.

READY TO ABIDE BY BOARD.
When Superintendent Barker was informed ten days ago that he would not be considered for re-election by the board, he issued a statement in which he expressed himself as content to abide by the ultimatum rather than make any attempt to continue to hold his position. He said that he would retire gracefully for the best interests of the department although a number of his friends urged him to resist the efforts of the majority members of the board. Director Henry L. Boyle and Director F. B. Cook combated the resolution of the majority members to remove Barker, but when that step was finally agreed upon they endorsed the plan under which it is proposed his successor will be chosen. Director Cook retires from the board at the close of the spring term as does Miss Annie Florence Brown, the president, and Mrs. Harriet Hayes, director.

Boycott Not Illegal, Is Decision of Court

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 26.—A peaceful boycott is not illegal and cannot be abated as a nuisance, according to a decision of the Montana Supreme Court. The court upheld the decision of the lower courts in denying an injunction asked by the Empire theater of Butte against the Silver Bow Trades and Labor Council and others. The court ruled that the acts of the labor union pickets in picketing the theater on the walk near the theater were neither wrongful in themselves nor a nuisance under the law.

Officers Reinstated by Adjutant-General

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 26.—Two of the thirteen National Guard officers who were relieved of their commands because of failure to turn in reports on time were reinstated by Adjutant-General Borree today. They are: Captain Herbert T. Bathey, Company F, and Captain W. C. Davidson, Company I, both of the Seventh regiment, Los Angeles. General Borree found that the two officers were not responsible for the delay in submitting reports. Several others may be reinstated, General Borree announced.

He was returning from a night session of court when the attempt was made on his life.

White's Shortage Paid by Relatives

MARTINEZ, Jan. 26.—The loss to his employers of a sum of $4000, said to have been taken by H. K. White, secretary of the Martinez-Benicia Perry and the Benicia Land and Improvement Company at the time of his disappearance a week ago, has been made good by his relatives, who mortgaged their home for the purpose, according to J. J. McNamara, president of the Perry Company.

McNamara said that a shortage of $4000 shows in the books of the Martinez Perry Company had been made good by W. F. Underhill, White's Sings His Way to Admission to U. S.

BOSTON, Jan. 26.—Dominic Pacifico, 30 years of age, sang his way into the country. When he arrived recently in the steerage of the steamer Crete from Italy he was detained because of his imperfect physical condition. "Give me a chance," said Pacifico, "I am an opera singer." "Sing then," challenged an immigration inspector. Before a board of special inquiry Pacifico sang an aria from "La Tosca." At its conclusion the board of inquiry unanimously voted that it was not likely Pacifico would become a public charge.

Frank Jansen Tells of Imprisonment in New Zealand and Escape.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—Declaring that he was detained for two years in New Zealand by the military authorities because he was a native of Germany, Frank Jansen, an American citizen through the naturalization of his father, arrived here yesterday via Seattle. "Because I was born in Germany," he said, "they refused to recognize my American citizenship. My father brought me to America when I was 7 years old. I have lost practically two years of my life. I was compelled to report to the authorities each day, and to do this I had to walk fourteen miles. They did everything in their power to harass me. Finally I decided to escape. I walked a considerable distance across the country and stowed away one night on the schooner Fred J. Wood."

Answer Is Filed to Ford Libel Suit

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Pleas in the $1,000,000 libel suit of Henry Ford of Detroit against the Chicago Tribune were filed by the newspaper in the United States District Court. The suit was based on editorial criticism of Mr. Ford for his opposition to preparedness.

The newspaper's answer sets forth what it terms complete justification for its criticism of the manufacturer for his alleged "efforts to block national preparedness." Emphatic denial is made of any spirit of malice in the remarks printed about Mr. Ford and his pacifist activities.

A comprehensive review of the great war and its effect on public opinion and national security in this country and what is termed "the Mexican menace" in its relations to the public opinion in the United States is made as the basis of the policy of the paper for preparedness. In considering the view of Mr. Ford, the answer of the paper says that its criticism of Mr. Ford and his efforts as a pacifist were "not actuated in any sense by a spirit of vindictiveness."

Safe Crackers Raid Town; Cut All Wires

FRESNO, Jan. 26.—Safe crackers looted the town of Riverdale, twenty miles south of Fresno, by cutting all telephone and telegraph wires and robbed a bank, according to a report to Sheriff Thowaldsen here. It was reported that the robbers also cut all electric light wires in town. Attempts to get into telephonic communication with Riverdale failed. The sheriff and his deputies left by automobile for Riverdale.

Woman Works As Clerk to Obtain Divorce

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26.—Working behind a counter in a local drug store, Mrs. Mae Yates, a young and attractive woman, who says she is the wife of a wealthy Alaska mining man, with a home in San Francisco, declared she came here to obtain a divorce. Mrs. Yates said she wanted to get the divorce quietly and she hoped to make her living selling toilet preparations.

Most Effective Remedy Mother Had Ever Used

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin
Relieves Baby When Other Medicines Failed.

There is nothing so necessary to a child's health and comfort as regularity of the bowels. All children are especially susceptible to stomach trouble and any overstrain of the sensitive organs has a tendency to obstruct elimination. This condition is responsible for much of the illness of childhood.

To relieve constipation a mild laxative should be employed. Cathartics and purgatives are violent in their action and should be avoided. Mrs. Alfred Du Bois, Mt. Holly, N. J., says Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is without doubt the most effective remedy for constipation she has ever used and that it is the only remedy she could find for her baby. Little Earl was badly constipated during his first year and nothing she tried seemed to help him until she got a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Now he is a fine, strong, healthy boy and she thanks Dr. Caldwell for it.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, free from opiates or narcotic drugs; it acts gently without griping or other discomfort, and appeals to children because of its pleasant taste. Druggists everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle, and every mother should have it in the house for use whenever occasion arises.

To avoid imitations and to get effective substitutes always be sure to ask for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

Serbian Dancer To Appear for Benefit Fund

MRS. CHRIS MILISICH.

Lavish Program Planned to Aid
Relief Work for Starving Families.

The first big public effort in San Francisco to raise funds to aid the thousands of destitute Serbians, driven from their homes by the fortunes of war, is to be made Saturday night, when an elaborate program, featured by the appearance of the Mahr Mieczkowski Russian ballet, will be given at Golden Gate Commandery Hall, 2137 Sutter street. Aiding in the arrangements are leading Serbians and their friends on both sides of the bay.

Mieczkowski's ballet will appear in a series of beautiful and spectacular numbers. The master will then introduce Lazar Kraljevic, the foremost Serbian classic dancer. His first offering will be a classic number in which he will show the wonderful technique of the Russian school. He will next offer a Chinese dance, a unique bit of characteristic work. The program in detail follows:

Russian peasant dance (Stravinsky).
Bernice Doyle, Dorothy Wise.
Pierette (Drigo).
Marguerite Henry.
Last Rose of Summer (Moore).
Bernice Brown.
Waltz Classique (Phryno).
Lazar Kraljevic.
Wooden Shoes (Von Dittersdorf).
Marie Phelan, Dorothea Thelle.
Cherry Blossom (Penn).
Florence Miller.
Minuet (Paderewski).
Emily Juras.
Rose Juras.
Casse de Trois (Sylvia).
Thelma Maler.
Bourne Roper, Margaret Lawrence.
Casse Chinese (Delibes).
Lazar Kraljevic.
Mahr Mieczkowski Russian ballet with orchestra under direction of Emilie Ilsevy McCormack.
"Bosa Pravda" and "Lijepa Nasa."
Serbian national songs, Mme. H. Narbutt.
Devich, dramatic soprano, soloist.
The officers in charge of the big relief program are:

M. G. Stanisich, president; J. E. Kukaviza, vice-president; P. Popovich, treasurer; E. T. Balch, recording secretary; M. Skero, financial secretary; Ladies' Auxiliary, Mrs. M. G. Stanisich, Mrs. F. Tlesovich, Mrs. K. Mischak, Mrs. J. E. Church, Mrs. E. Vukanovich, Mrs. C. Compagno.

All talent has been donated and every cent taken in will go direct to the aid of the starving Serbians. The program is to begin at 8:30 Saturday evening.

The Bride of a Moment

By Carolyn Wells.

"Then they're a lot of dunder-heads, and they don't know what they're talking about! Just you have patience a minute longer, and you'll see who knows the most about this thing, you or I."

"You are a comfort, Eileen, you're always so hopeful. But you don't realize, dearest, that—"

"Oh! I don't realize, don't I? Well, I just guess I do! I realize a heap more than you do, you blessed old stupid."

"I am stupid, I'll admit. This whole business has simply taken away my brain, and I can't see what to do next."

"Don't do anything. Leave it to those who are wiser than you. Here comes one now. Mr. Ford, what do you think?"

"Bingham says he doesn't know what to do!"

"Neither do I," and Ford looked quizzical. "Those misguided weneers in the police office are thwarting all my efforts, and I am put to it to keep my plans secret from them, lest they upset them all."

"Do you know, Mr. Ford, I think it would be a good idea if Mr. Bingham went away for a time."

"Run away!" exclaimed Bingham. "I'd be likely to do that!"

"Not exactly run away, but go off for a little rest," and Eileen smiled at him. Bingham looked at her grimly. "I expect Somers would have something to say about that. No, my dear, I don't think I'll go away for a rest, just at present. In fact, I don't think I'll go until I can take you with me."

"I don't know what that will be, Mr. Bingham," and Ford spoke earnestly. "I advise you to stay here, but I also advise you not to say much. The police are on a new tack, and I don't quite know what they're up to. But I know if they can twist or convert your speeches to serve their own ends, they are quite ready to do so. They're working on the 'Gaples' story just now, and they're getting a lot out of it. They repudiate the work that I've done; they've no use for my deductions and conclusions, so I'm working on my own; and I get the truth before they do, and I fully expect to, they will fight hard before they own themselves beaten."

"What is the truth, Mr. Ford?"

"That Guy Farris shot the bride at the altar."

"I cannot believe it!"

"Principally because I can think of no reason why he should do it. Farris has not been friendly with Ethel for more than a year, not since Ethel and I became engaged. Whatever feelings he once entertained for her must have become more or less effaced in that time. He could hardly have been still so desperately in love with her as to prefer seeing her dead rather than wedded to me."

"Those are the arguments of the police, and they throw suspicion, in their opinion, back on yourself."

(To be continued tomorrow.)

COWBOY SPORTS AT CONVENTION

Stockmen's Session in Texas to Be Marked by Notable Features.

EL PASO, Texas, Jan. 25.—A program of cowboy sports and frontier races is now being arranged for the entertainment of the delegates who attend the convention of the Panhandle and Southwest Stockmen's Association here on March 8 and 9. The Chamber of Commerce has the program in charge and it will be given as a part of the entertainment to be arranged for the visitors.

In addition to the roping, riding, bronco "busting" and other athletic sports, there will be relay races and a chuck wagon supper. Champion riders and ropers have been engaged for the program.

The convention of the association has become an annual feature of the stockmen's life in the Southwest. A majority of the cattlemen in western Texas, southern New Mexico and eastern Arizona belong to the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association, the American Livestock Association, or one of the other larger organizations. But almost all of the cattlemen in this district make it a rule to attend the meetings of the southwestern association.

Engineers Will War on Chicago Mosquito

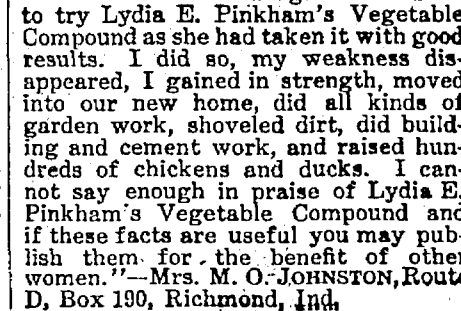

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—War on the Illinois mosquito has been declared by the Illinois Society of Engineers. Plans are announced to organize a special section of the society to push a movement to drain all the swamp land and eliminate malaria and mosquitoes. It was pointed out that there are 20,000 cases of the disease in the State a year with an average of 100 deaths annually and an economic loss to the State of about $3,000,000 a year. The engineers placed the total cost of draining all these swamp land in the State at $15,000,000.

Too Ill to Walk Upright. Operation
Advised. Saved by Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This woman now raises chickens and does manual labor. Read her story:

Richmond, Ind.—"For two years I was so sick and weak with troubles from my age that when going up stairs I had to go very slowly with my hands on the steps, then I came down at the top to rest. The doctor said he thought I should have an operation, and my friends thought I would not live to move into our new house. My daughter asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she had taken it with good results. I did so, my weakness disappeared, I gained in strength, moved into our new home, did all kinds of garden work, shoveled dirt, did building and cement work, and raised hundreds of chickens and ducks. I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and if these facts are useful you may publish them for the benefit of other women."—Mrs. M. O. Washing Won't Rid Head of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.—Advertisement.

Birth Control Advocate
in Prison Keeps Up
Starvation Fight

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
LEADED WIRE TO TRIBUNE
NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Ethel Byrne expects an early end of her hunger strike, and she expects the end will bring her victory.

"Today or tomorrow will bring the end," the birth control advocate said, as she began the fifth day of her thirty-day sentence for disseminating birth control literature.

"I do not expect to die," Mrs. Byrne said. "They will not permit me to die, but they will seek to feed me forcibly. In the end they will be compelled to release me and I will have shown them that their complicated system of grand juries and indictments and judges and prisons is helpless against one woman."

500,000 BATHE INTERNALLY

The marvelous growth of Internal Bathing since the advent of "J. B. J. Cascade" is accounted for not only by the enthusiastic praise of its users to others, but also by the physicians insisting more and more that the Lower Intestine must be kept free from waste to insure perfect health and efficiency.

Mary L. J. Walker, M. L. D., Olean, N. Y., writes:

"I must tell you of a case of Constipation lasting for twenty years that was cured by your Cascade treatment."

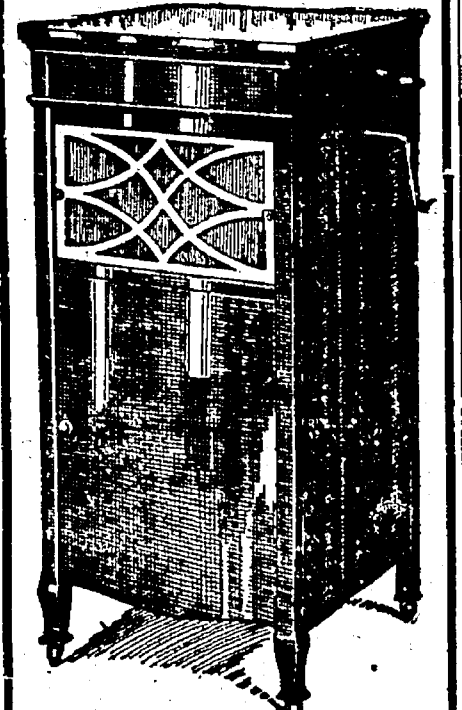

"The physician in charge said the patient had a tumor between the stomach and intestines. The patient being 63 years old, he claimed no help could be given except the knife; but finding the intestines in a very bad state, I advised the J. B. J. Cascade, which resulted in a complete recovery. When I took the case she was taking a laxative three times a day and had been for three weeks; couldn't get along without it. Now she never takes any laxative."

SHIPPING IS DISCUSSED BY COUNCIL

National Policies Are Heard in Pittsburgh Session; Merchant Marine Committee Submits Report on Trade Conditions

Webb Bill Is Considered by the Meeting; Co-operation in Selling Imperative, Declared; Export Business Is Important

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 26.—Discussion of the national shipping policy held the attention of the delegates when the second day's session convened here today of the fourth annual convention of the National Foreign Trade Council. Adjournment was taken shortly after noon in order to permit the visiting businessmen to inspect various industrial plants in this vicinity.

The merchant marine committee of the council today submitted a report on "World Shipping Conditions and the American Merchant Marine." This was followed by an address by Bernard N. Baker, member of the United States shipping board, who discussed the work and object of that body.

J. W. Fowler, president of the Foreign River Shipbuilding Company, then spoke on "The Present Position and Future Prospect of American Shipbuilding."

"Shipping to Latin America" was the subject of a brief survey by T. Eugene Boles, manager of the Spanish edition of the World's Work Magazine. The last address was made by Frederick N. Lynch, vice-president and manager of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, on "How Commercial Organizations Can Increase Foreign Trade."

The convention will adjourn tomorrow afternoon.

WEBB BILL DISCUSSION.
Passage of the Webb bill authorizing co-operation among American exporters in foreign trade, is urged upon Congress by the National Foreign Trade Council in a report submitted to the fourth national foreign trade convention here today.

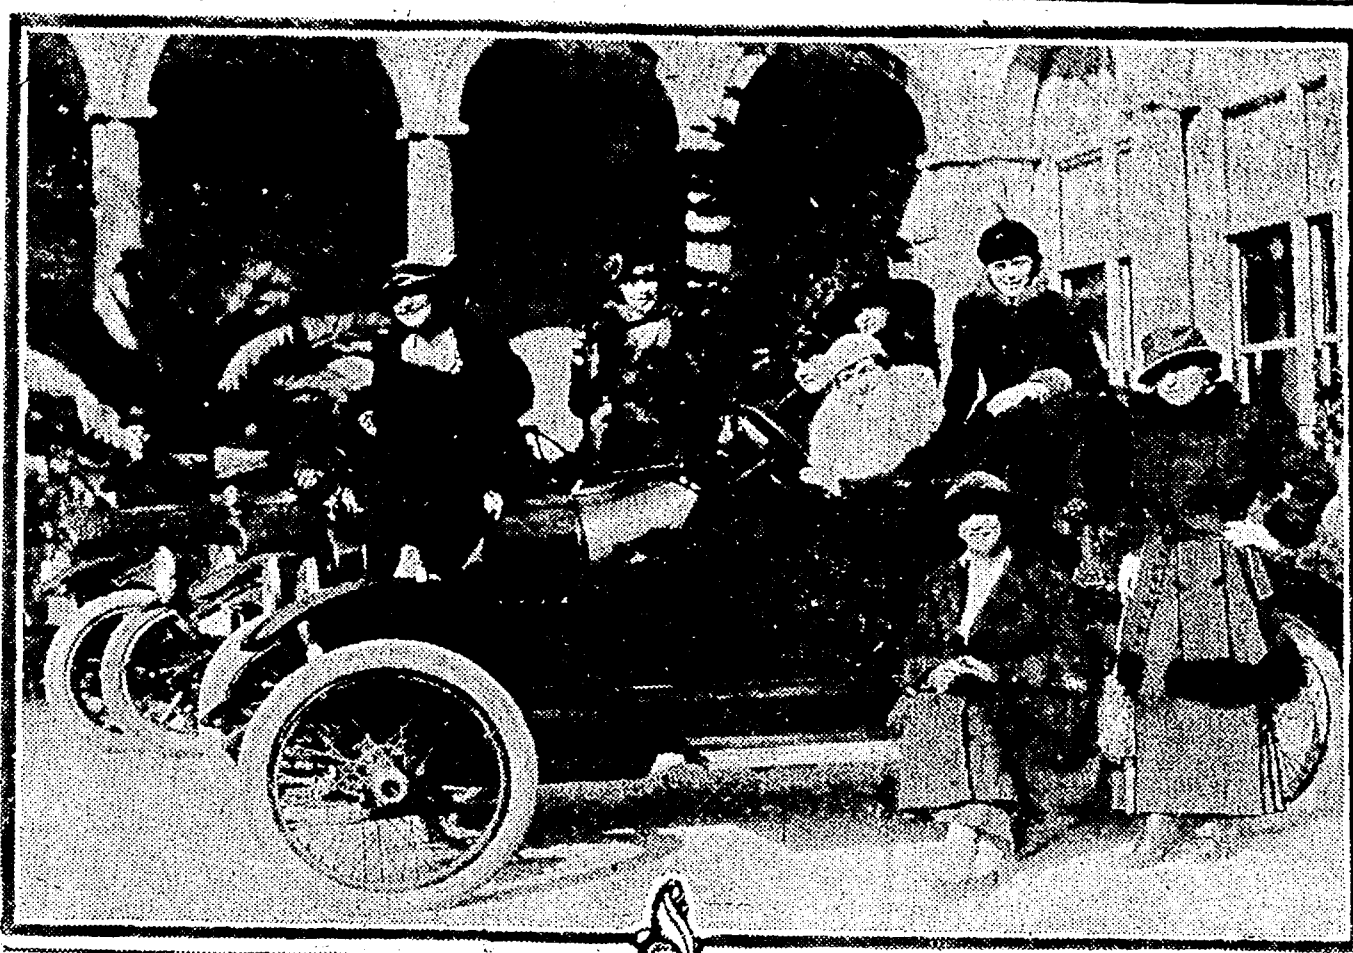

"Inability of Americans to co-operate among our competitors a practical subsidy," declared the council. "Co-operative in export selling is imperative to meet the proposed post-bellum co-operative buying, not only by groups of European industries but even by governments with the object of controlling prices."

"Co-operation would enable many smaller manufacturers and merchants to develop abroad selling power and resources too costly for them to develop individually. Greater stability of export business could be obtained through co-operation, and a wider distribution obtained of the benefits of overseas sales as a balance wheel against recurring periods of domestic depression and unemployment. Increase of normal export trade is essential to defend the gold reserve from sudden drains due to increased European competition. Since the countries with which 90 per cent of American export commerce is conducted have their own anti-trust laws, the application of such laws to exporters merely subjects them to a double standard and cannot reach their competitors."

SAN FRANCISCO FAVORED.
San Francisco has the backing of the entire Pacific coast delegation in its fight for the national foreign trade convention next year. Chairman James A. Farrell of New York is to meet with the following committee to hear San Francisco's claims: Ernest Drury, Robert Newton Lynch, H. T. Powell, Clarence E. Baen of San Francisco and William Pigott of Seattle. O. M. Clark of Portland and James Forsyth of Los Angeles. Farrell today received telegrams from Governor Johnson and Mayor Ralph urging San Francisco's cause.

Alva B. Johnson of Philadelphia, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, was elected president of the council at the opening session.

Stage Favorites Ride Through City; Maxwell Car Praised

Much of the success of The TRIBUNE'S Shopping Tour Tuesday when the members of the "Experience" Company, now playing at the Macdonough Theater, were taken on a visit to leading business houses, was due to the service rendered by the sturdy little Maxwell cars. These four Maxwells with competent drivers were placed at the disposal of The TRIBUNE by the Cuyler Lee Co., the distributors of the car in this district. During the course of the tour some of the scenic boulevards adjoining the city were covered and the splendid behavior of the Maxwells on these steep grades was a subject of the most favorable comment from the ladies who enjoyed the tour.

POLICE TO FREE ACTOR SUSPECT

Murder Theory in L. A. Proves to Be Case of Heart Failure.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26.—Heart trouble, made acute by excessive drinking, was given yesterday by Dr. Calvin Hartwell, county coroner, as the cause of the death of Mrs. Nell Harvey of Exeter, found dead in bed in the Leonide hotel early yesterday, her face in a pool of blood, where she had been left by Harlin J. Winter, motion picture actor.

Winter, the police said, held as a suspect will be released as soon as his hysterical condition will permit. What the police said were bruises on the woman's body were found to be blood clots. Noise as of a struggle, reported by the hotel proprietor, proved to have been the woman falling in a faint, and Winter stumbling to the bed with her. The pool of blood was said to have been that from vessels burst in death.

RECENTLY VISITED EXETER.
VISALIA, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Nell Harvey, found dead in Los Angeles yesterday, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dreisbach, who live on an orange grove several miles south of Exeter. Dreisbach is a prominent churchman and occasionally fills the pulpit in churches in this vicinity without a regular supply. The family came to Exeter from Oklahoma about sixteen years ago. Dreisbach has been prominent in Sunday school work in the county since.

Nell was the third daughter, her two oldest—sister and one younger—died with tuberculosis. There are two boys and a younger sister in the family. For a number of years Mrs. Harvey has been away from Exeter, following an elopement. It is understood that her married life with Harvey was not a happy one. She visited her parents at Exeter about six weeks ago.

KINGS, QUEENS, JACKS AND FIRE! A GAY NIGHT

Merry, Merry Firemen Dealt Flushes While Roof Blazed

TRIBUNE BUREAU 633 MARKET ST. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—It was a great game of seven-up. The lieutenant held two aces while hoesman No. 1 was sitting in with two head-gear johnnies and a chorus-girl of hearts. For four hands around the thin man who is the first to reach the driver's seat when the gong rings had gathered in the lead. There was a two-handed deal to come. The setting—a Polk-street fire house. Time—this morning.

A stranger stepped inside the door. "Hey!" he said. "Shut up!" said the lieutenant. "You are interrupting the game."

The man subsided and looked on silently, while the king showed up, gathered and faded into the discard. After a bit he shifted his weight to the other foot. "Say—" he began, but the hoesman shut him off with a glare from his left eye. The cards came and went and the score mounted up. Into the room in the fire-house where the crew sat and played and played and played came the odor of smoke. "Say, you boneheads," said the stranger, as the card players laid down their hands and snuffed the air. "I've been trying to tell you for fifteen minutes that your roof is on fire!"

There was a wild rush for the stairway. The firemen arrested the upper floor to find the roof blazing merrily and the rooms filled with smoke. Fire extinguishers and ten minutes of hard work just saved the building, and that was all. When the firemen returned the stranger had gone.

"Shall we finish the game?" asked the hoesman. "You finish nothing," said the lieutenant. "You stay on the job."

THEATER PARTY TO BE SUCCESS

Tribune Adds to Prizes for Tire Changing Contest of Auto Dealers.

By EDMUND CRINNION.

You had better hurry and get your tickets now if you want to join the Automobile Trades Dealers at the Orpheum party next Monday night. According to Chairman A. E. Berg of the committee in charge of the event, the tickets are selling rapidly, and it is expected that the lot will be entirely sold out by tomorrow morning.

Interest in the big event is growing rapidly among the motoring public and along automobile row there is much excitement in the camps of the various teams that are to compete in the Championship Tire Changing Contest. The boys are training for the fray and when they start Monday night there will be some fast work displayed. To further stimulate the local lads in their efforts to hold the championship honors in Oakland The TRIBUNE will present the winner of the contest with a suit of clothes and the second to finish with a $7.50 shoe order. The TRIBUNE prizes will be in addition to the other prizes that are up for the contest.

Stanley Robinson and George Cerelli, winners of the prize last year, did not have to qualify for this contest, and they will be on hand Monday night and endeavor to maintain their standard. From the reports of try-outs in Stockton and Sacramento it is learned that very good time has been made, which has put the local boys on their metal and they are going into a regular course of training.

A special meeting held last evening pumps were selected, tire gauges tested and the United States tires, tubes and Goodyear rims were inspected.

UNCLE SAM USES TRUCKS.
Uncle Sam is buying more automobiles and motor trucks for use in the various departments of the government each year, and increasing his motor transportation facilities whenever the opportunity to do so arises. Though the government rule is wonderfully useful in many lines of work and especially in the army transport service, his field has lately been invaded by both the automobile and motor truck.

The work accomplished in Mexico by the Jeffrey motor trucks and automobiles, in which these motor vehicles participated, and which have been made known to the powers of the gasoline propelled machines, has proven that these powerful motor cars can go anywhere they can find traction and do any work that mules and horses accomplished.

In the recruiting service the army officials use a Jeffrey truck, which has been fitted up for recruiting publicity, etc., and which has been found to work excellently in this service. Uncle Sam is one of the Jeffrey factory's big customers and the record of the factory's trucks in Mexico will stand for all time and transportation achievement of unusual merit.

Oakland Store Sells Big Stock and Lease

The Savoy Boot Shop of Oakland has just sold their entire stock, fixtures and lease, to George Gundlach and Charles Kushnir, two fine wire shoe men. Prison Reformer to Be Heard at Church

Captain William Day, of the Prisoners' Aid Society, is to be given the pulpit of the Olivet Congregational church both morning and evening Sunday to tell of the effort to aid paroled and discharged men from the penitentiaries. This is the second of a series of ten or a dozen addresses which the pastor, Rev. Frank W. Dean, has arranged for on the general theme "What Society is Doing for the Unfortunate." Other addresses by experts in social service will follow on successive Sunday evenings.

Mayrisch Placed on Five Years' Probation

E. Mayrisch, formerly deputy city auditor of the city of Alameda, was yesterday placed upon five years' probation by Judge Frank B. Ogden. Mayrisch pleaded guilty to raising pay checks of city employees. He had secured about $250 for himself by the system, but made complete restitution. His failing health won him the leniency of Probation Officer Leonard Compton.

Farmer Is Accused of Embezzling Coin

He came here from Arizona with his family and located on a farm. He was given a hearing before United States Commissioner J. E. Ebert and held to answer in $2000 bail.

Finds Fortune in Old Clock; Gets 50 Cents

MARYSVILLE, Jan. 26.—For more than fifty years $5000 in greenbacks has reposed in a grandfather's clock in the garret of the home of Miss Annette Perham near this city. The other day Miss Perham, who has lived in the house all of a half a century, employed a stray hobo to clean out the garret. He found the money and turned it over to Miss Perham. She gave him a tip of 50 cents and, according to his story, a tract admonishing him that honesty is the best policy. The money was printed before the Civil war. It is worth its face value. It is in denominations of $10, $100 and $500.

Constipation Relieved by Food

MAN was provided with the weapon to fight constipation right in his food. The weapon is the natural waste in the cereals. Any doctor will tell you that the long muscular digestive tube is precisely designed to be incited to action by means of waste, and not by irritating drugs.

Dr. Jackson's Roman Meal

is an entirely drugless, full-nutrition food with the proper amount of natural waste. It positively relieves constipation or we return your money.

Roman Meal is composed of entire berries of wheat and rye with wheat bran and flax seed (rendered absolutely tasteless and odorless by electricity).

Roman Meal is different from ordinary bran-foods. The irritating effect of bran used alone, which may cause intestinal are needed. It is the opposite of the highly milled cereal foods and flours which are robbed of their precious blood regulating salines, also indispensable food elements known as "vitamines."

The United States Government's Health Service will send you a most interesting booklet written by three well-known scientists. Their experiments show the importance of full-nutrition foods.

Just write a letter and ask for booklet entitled, "Bread as a Food." Enclose five cents and address your letter: "Scientific Department of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C."

When you have received this booklet you will realize how precious Roman Meal, the whole grain, full-nutrition food will be to you. At all grocers.

WHERE NEW CAPITAL IS WELCOME.

Judging from present indications, Alameda and Berkeley will lose no time in turning the folly of Oakland to their advantage. Presented the opportunity through the successful efforts of Mayor Davie and certain of his advisors to drive a great industrial development enterprise out of this city, the two cities on either side of us have taken steps to assure the Smith interests and all other possible investors of new capital that a cordial welcome will be extended. Both Alameda and Berkeley are alive to the great advantage of utilization of their waterfronts to attract new industries and new business.

It will be a sad day in the affairs of this city when industrial development is diverted to the north and south. Yet this is precisely what will happen so long as Oakland does not do the sensible part in promoting its own development. Alameda and Berkeley have facilities for new industries. A wonderful expansion in the industrial life of the metropolitan area around San Francisco bay is inevitable; San Francisco has not the room for great new industries and they must find a place on the east shore. The antagonism and the unfriendliness of certain elements in Oakland will not keep new enterprises away from the entire east bay district, but they will force new enterprises to seek more congenial civic and political environment.

Such a project for a shipping and railway terminals as the Smith interests proposed to create in the Key Basin district would carry with it a great development in other lines of industry. If it should go to Berkeley or Alameda it will mean the beginning of the diversion of what is rightfully due Oakland to either of those cities. It will mean the shifting of the industrial, railway and shipping center from Oakland to the neighboring city showing better judgment. It will be just as harmful to this city as would be the shifting of the railway and shipping terminals to an island in the middle of San Francisco bay or to the Ferry Building itself. The motive for driving this great project out of Oakland is indistinguishable from motive to give San Francisco the actual terminals of the transcontinental railways. Both are equally unkind of the interests of this city.

But notwithstanding all this it would be uncharitable to withhold recognition and congratulation from Alameda and Berkeley for their alacrity in repudiating the attitude of Oakland and assuring outside capital that they are willing to grow and prosper.

UNABLE TO ANSWER.

Events in San Francisco's latest vice crusade yesterday furnished a great big, wholesome lesson for everyone who gives the slightest thought to the daily problems of human life. Over 200 women of the underworld went to the church of Rev. Paul Smith, originator and leader of the present campaign against social evils, and asked him pointedly, "What are you going to do with us?"

And Rev. Mr. Smith, as has been the lot of every man and woman in a similar situation, had to confess he had not thought of that, and to reply: "I don't know. I can't answer you."

There is no right-thinking person who does not sympathize heartily with the principle of the efforts being made across the bay to lessen the ugliness, or entirely eradicate, the "redlight" evil. There are not many who do not hope that these efforts will go on in a proper manner in every community until a solution and a remedy is found.

But no thinking person can reasonably hope for success so long as the efforts toward correction are not marked by an honest recognition of the economic phase of prostitution. When this fact is ignored failure is a certainty.

The women who appeared before Rev. Mr. Smith yesterday inquired, in substance, "How many of us are you willing to take into your home and care for? How many of us are each of your associates willing to take care of? How many of us may find a livelihood the following of which will conform to the ideas of the church?" And, pathetic though it is, there were none to answer.

Ever since the days of the crusades against the Moors, the period of medieval murder, the crusader and the moral reformer has gone to his work with his economic vision shut off by a four-fold blinder—prejudice, selfishness, self-righteousness and lack of human understanding. In the light of modern knowledge, it is a tragedy when the error repeats itself. But the reason for this is that too many of us are willing to enlist under the banner of "charity," and too few of us are willing to perform "service."

It does not matter how it came about that a company of Magdalenes appeared to question Rev. Mr. Smith; it is sufficient that their question is eternal—in San Francisco, in Oakland, in every city where man is. Society cannot hope to make much real progress until it acknowledges the obligation of solving the economic problems of the social evil.

DREAMS AND THE REALITY.

In making the statement to the Senate of his scheme for an international league for peace, President Wilson voiced one sentiment which forcibly illustrates the failure of a considerable body of theorists in the United States to comprehend the prevailing thought in other nations. This was his declaration that neither side in the war should be victorious. The president said:

"They [previously stated considerations] imply that it must be a peace without victory . . . Victory would mean peace forced upon the loser, a victor's terms imposed upon the vanquished."

Let this be compared with a few other statements: On December 30th last, the entente governments replied to the suggestion of the Central Powers for a peace conference, in these terms:

"Once again the Allies declare that no peace is possible so long as they have not secured reparation for violated rights and liberties, the recognition of the principle of nationality and of the free existence of small states, so long as they have not brought about a settlement calculated to end once and for all forces which have constituted a perpetual menace to the nations."

This is indisputably a joint resolve to win complete victory in the war, for it frankly voices the aims to annihilate Prussian military power. Later, on January 10th, replying directly to President Wilson's peace notes, the entente governments said:

"The whole world knows that the object of the Allies imply in all necessity and in the first instance, the restoration of Belgium, of Serbia, of Montenegro and the indemnities which are due them, the evacuation of the invaded territories of Russia, France and Rumania, with just reparation," etc., and the liberation of Europe from the "covetousness of Prussian militarism."

This is certainly another declaration of intention to pursue the war until complete victory is won. But if there still remained any doubt on this subject, the note from Mr. Arthur Balfour, supplemental to the entente joint note, and which was received in Washington January 14th, ought to have been enlightening. The British Foreign Minister wrote:

"The country has made, is making and is prepared to make sacrifices of blood and treasure unparalleled in its history. It bears these burdens because it believes that on the success of the Allies, depends," etc.

And if further light was required upon the determination of both groups to win the concessions due a victor, the President had before him the declaration of the German Chancellor at Christmas time that the Teutonic forces already had won a decisive victory.

Public comment abroad on the President's speech to the Senate shows that the failure of the head of the United States government to comprehend national sentiment in the belligerent countries is very puzzling. All the peoples at war are astounded that America cannot understand that the war is not a beautiful dream, but a life and death human, earthly struggle.

The President's persistence in ignoring essentials is in harmony with the preachments of the so-called Internationalists, among which there are many sincere men. But all alike act as if they were ignorant of the fact that national lines are more tightly drawn, more boldly outlined, than ever before. As a phase of intense nationalism may be cited the cabled despatch printed yesterday concerning a French woman who killed her child because its father was of an enemy nationality. The French nation, through its judicial system, approved the act. This is not only evidence of an unconquerable national spirit, but of a bitterness toward enemies equal to any that existed under the most primitive tribalism. The incident is typical of the spirit that may be found among all belligerents, not perhaps so intensified everywhere, but in all nations reflected to a certain degree. To say that it will be satisfied with anything less than complete victory is to shut our eyes to the actual facts.

The time may come, and it is to be devoutly hoped for, when a code of international morals may be applied to the conduct of nations, but the present war must end and its ravages on the spirit and soul of Europe be forgotten before the voice of internationalism may again be heard.

The State legislature has acted conformably to the best interests of the State in signifying to Washington that it is interested in the proper administration of the immigration bureau at Angel Island. This bureau is charged with the duties of enforcing the law against the admission of laborers and other excluded classes of Orientals, and if negligence or wilful disregard of the provisions of the law exist it is California that is the loser.

Over 400,000 Canadians have enlisted in the war being waged by Great Britain. If the people of the United States should exhibit a like degree of patriotism they would furnish 5,000,000 volunteers for an army to defend their country against a foreign enemy.

The most daring illustration of uplift in United States history—elevation of a golf-player to be a rear-admiral of the navy.

NOTES and COMMENT

The Adamson law got passed in a frenzy, but efforts to amend it are not successful. Congress has time to consider now.

Story of a very small boy who slew four ferocious mountain lions with a bird gun. Do we need to explain that it comes from Marysville? We do not.

Some Russian newspapers are predicting that this country will yet mix it with Germany. Conspicuous example of the tendency of some people to take the joy out of life.

There are some signs that the Smith lease matter may result in an organized movement to disavow knoekers. If it does it will confer blessings upon all who like to see things move.

Salvation item from the Marysville Appeal: "Evangelist who is to show here for a month beginning about March 10 called at the Appeal office and said he'd not put in his time here knocking Marysville. Sounds sensible and reasonable."

Secretary of State Jordan, the story is, has removed Governor Johnson's picture from a place upon his office walls. But what Governor Johnson has been doing to Secretary of State Jordan all through these six years considerably more than evens up.

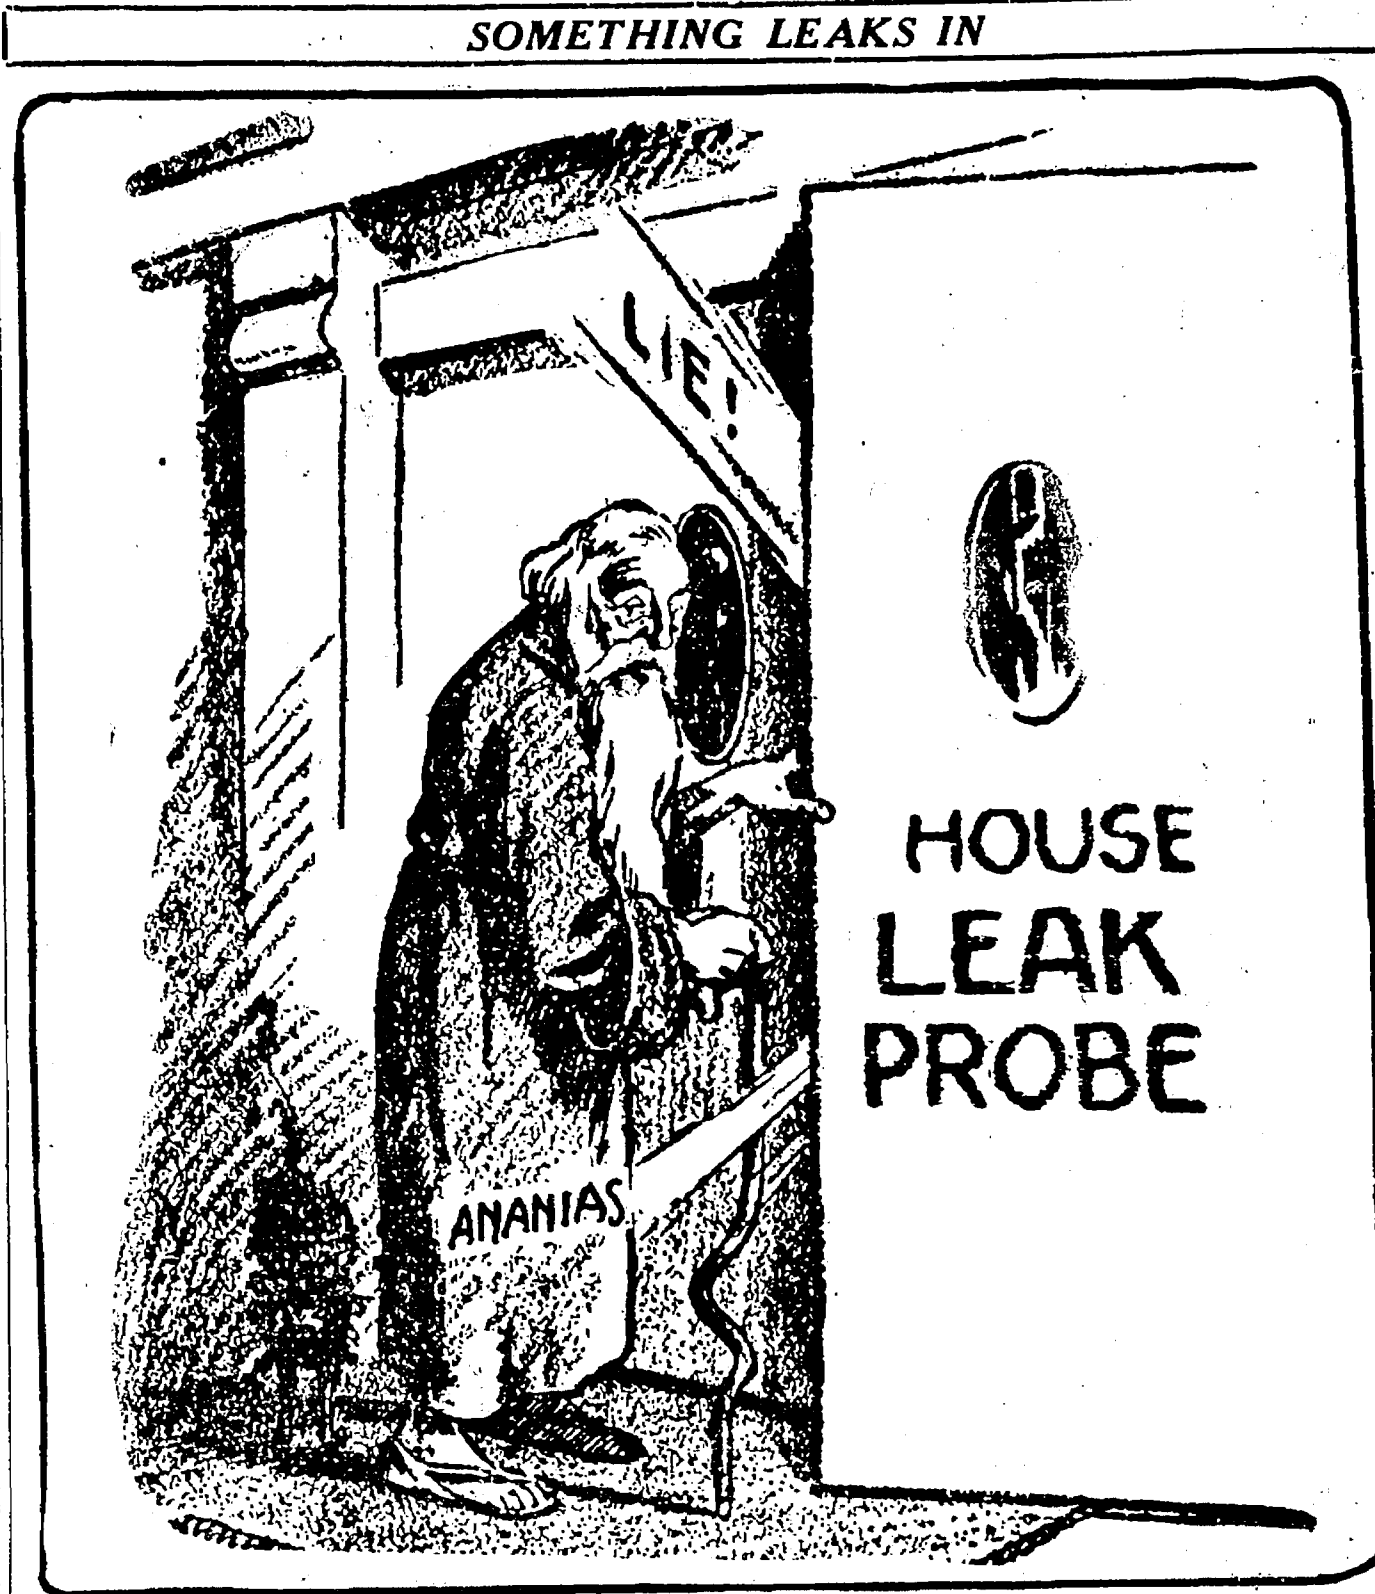

Premising that we fully accept the story from the university farm, to the effect that hens are induced to lay extra by making it appear that the sun rises two hours before its scheduled time, we are impelled to criticize the ethics of thus imposing on innocent and trusting fowls just to get an extra egg or two.

Whenever they utter themselves on the subject members of the Legislature deplore the expense of needless attaches. Last session these attaches of the Assembly cost $114,000, while the pay of members was but $6000 more than that. The figures should lead to thought.

Senator Lyon of Los Angeles has introduced an anti-tipping bill. It has been tried before and failed to work. Difficult to restrain the universal eagerness to reward the exuberant youth who wears out your clothes with a whisk broom and the amiable person who slips his thumb in your soup.

The statement that Southern Pacific locomotive engineers, in passing through wild sections, are under instructions to shut off their headlights so as to give the deer a chance to gather their faculties and get off the track, is interesting. Some such thoughtfulness as to wandering pedestrians would be humane. They are often blinded by headlights of autos.

A bill aimed at some abuses of the initiative and referendum, has been introduced. It would do away with solicitors at so much per name. All who feel the need of invoking the measures would have to take the trouble to go to some stated place and sign their names. Which really would not seem to be a severe condition.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Assemblyman Inman of Sacramento county is in bad with a part of his constituents at least. Contrary to the many county government bills introduced in the legislature, Inman, instead of raising salaries, as is usually the case, is attempting to slash something like $6000 from the annual payroll of his county.—Modesto News.

Up to Wednesday evening of this week, the horticultural commission had already inspected 164,000 trees received in this county this winter. Two more carloads were at that time still unopened on the track at Tempton, bringing the total of trees to over 200,000, or about four times as many as had been received at this time last season.—Atascadero News.

THE JESTER

Disgusted Diner—I'll never have another meal in this restaurant! The meat's high and they've diluted the whisky. Clergyman—Ahem! How true it is the flesh is strong but the spirit is weak—Ideas.

Cholly—Do you think it would be foolish for me to marry a girl who was my intellectual inferior? Dolly—More than foolish—Impossible.—Cleveland Leader.

Elderly Spinster (waking up and finding burglar going through her jewel case)—Leave me at once, sir! Burglar—Certainly! I had no intention of taking you.—London Opinion.

TODAY 20 YEARS AGO

A measure to change the salaries of Alameda county public officials was considered by the legislature at Sacramento. It is said that members of the legislature will attempt to have salaries of the county officers reduced.

The joint committee of the Oakland Board of Trade and Merchants' Exchange appeared before the Board of Supervisors regarding the distribution of 15,000 copies of a book entitled "Facts and Figures of Alameda County." The board was asked to give financial assistance in the distribution. Miss Bess Clift, W. H. Nahl and C. E. Gilbert are circulating a petition for the purpose of obtaining pledges of support for a home to be used in connection with the police department for the keeping of waifs and girls who are arrested.

GIRL STANDS OFF POSSE OF REVENUE MEN

RILONI, Miss., Jan. 26.—For two hours today a 14-year-old girl, Sarah Goins, armed with shotgun and revolver, stood off a posse of revenue officers seeking to arrest her family on charges of moonshining. Unwilling to hurt the girl and fearing to risk their own lives, the posse surrounded the place and surprised her from the rear while she was attracted by a demonstration of the officers in front.

Federal officers declare that Goins and his family have been making illicit whiskey for years and that the girl is one of the

Americas Approve of Wilson Stand
Will Be Potent Factors in New Plan

By John Edwin Nevin,

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The majority of the Latin-American nations approved in substance President Wilson's peace suggestions before they were delivered to the Senate last Monday.

This was admitted at the State Department by a spokesman of the most persistent moonshiners of the lot.

partment today. It was stated that the Latin-American countries, which must prove a potent factor in dealing looking toward a general international agreement to prevent future wars that the United States may enter into under present plans, were informally sounded out in the general proposal later enunciated by the President. For the most part the responses were made of a most favorable character, it is now admitted.

It definitely was denied that Uruguay had entered protest against being committed in any way when the proposal was broached to her foreign office. Not a single objection was made, State Department officials said, by any of the countries.

That a definite agreement yet will be undertaken with the Latin-American nations as distinct allies to the United States is believed certain. In this connection it was pointed out in diplomatic circles today that the majority of the larger South American nations have felt all along that they should be made active instead of passive factors to the Monroe doctrine.

White House officials today refused to discuss Latin-American co-operation as well as to affirm that President Wilson is in receipt of assurances of support for his latest league of nations plan from neutral European countries.

It was stated that there were no negotiations of any kind on this subject at this time.

Water Rights May Be Given Ranchers

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 26.—Assemblyman Tarke of Sutter county introduced a bill today designed to terminate the long struggle over water rights in the Sutter basin in favor of the ranchers and farmers along the Sutter-Yuba boundary.

Tarke's bill, in effect, makes a law of the decision rendered by Judge Emmet Sewell three years ago, when the claims of the early settlers in the basin along the Sutter-Yuba line were given priority to the water which, under the so-called Armour project, it was planned to divert to the north and east parts of the basin.

TO CHINA IS TO BE URGED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The United States is most vitally concerned over the new political crisis in Japan, officials admitted today. If the plans of Premier Terauchi, culminating in dissolution yesterday of the lower house of the Diet, are endorsed in the April elections, it is entirely likely that the question of the open door in China immediately will be pressed to the front. It is known here that the premier intends to insist on Japanese preference in China to the fullest extent. Some of his followers, it already has been reported to the state department, are on record as favoring a "Japanese Monroe doctrine" which would limit all Chinese development to Japanese capital and such other outside assistance as the Japanese shall approve.

Secretary Lansing and his assistants positively declined today to comment on the situation. It is known that Ambassador Guthrie reported some time ago that the elaborate military and naval plans of the new premier were opposed by the members of the lower house of the diet and that if it were permitted to assemble it would vote a lack of confidence overwhelmingly. The masses of Japanese are opposed generally, it was reported, to the elaborate military and naval program.

FLOTILLA
CHIEF DIED IN BATTLE

BERLIN, Wednesday, Jan. 24 (via wireless to Sayville, Jan. 26).—Details of the engagements between the German torpedo boat flotilla and British light naval forces on the morning of January 21 are given today in an Overseas News Agency announcement.

"Immediately after the beginning of the engagement, which took place in darkness," says the agency statement, "the commander's boat, the V-69, received a full hit on the bridge. The commander of the flotilla, Captain of Corvette Max Schultz, who always had commanded his flotilla with courage and success, was killed, as were two other officers and some men. The steering gear was damaged, causing a collision with other boats. The V-69 in a badly damaged condition entered the Dutch port of Xumuiden without being molested by the enemy.

"The boat rammed by the V-69, notwithstanding the damage sustained, continued to participate in the combat and inflicted heavy damage on the British destroyer by ramming it. Later a German who recognized the destroyer stated that it was in a sinking condition.

The German torpedo boat, although its speed had been diminished by the collision with the V-69 and by ramming the British destroyer, succeeded

MASONIC TEMPLE IN PETALUMA IS LOSS BY FIRE

Valuable Building, One of Oldest in City, Is Wrecked

PETALUMA, Jan. 26.—The Masonic Temple, one of the oldest buildings in Petaluma, was almost destroyed by fire early today with a loss on building and contents estimated at $100,000. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Fire Chief Adams sustained a badly sprained ankle and several firemen were slightly hurt.

The fire started at 5 a. m. in the light well at the rear of the Wheeler & Fields millinery store. It ran up the light well and spread rapidly. When the firemen reached the scene the flames were shooting sixty feet into the air.

The Wheeler & Fields store was burned out, as was the Wardrobe, a haberdashery in the building. The Roach grocery, however, was scarcely touched. Valuable Masonic regalia and furnishings in the lodge rooms on the second floor were partly saved.

Ten streams of water, pumped from the Petaluma river, were used by the firemen. At 9:30 the fire was under control.

In reaching a German base unhindered by the enemy.

A third German boat in the darkness encountered numerous hostile torpedo boat destroyers. Entering into action, it sank a large hostile destroyer by discharging a torpedo at short range.

Forces of the enemy this boat withdrew from the fight and arrived in port undamaged and unmolested by the enemy.

MRS. BYRNE
IN HOSPITAL
FROM 'STRIKE'

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Ethel Byrne, militant birth-control advocate, who has now been on a hunger strike for five days, was removed from her cell to the hospital on Blackwell's island today. This was disclosed in an official bulletin regarding her condition, issued by Burdett C. Lewis, commissioner of correction, in which it was stated that Mrs. Byrne was noticeably weaker.

Authorities are receiving constant reports on Mrs. Byrne's condition through Dr. Irma Howard, a medical physician. They declared that if Dr. Howard feels at any time that Mrs. Byrne should be fed, food absolutely will be given her. They did not designate the method.

The bulletin today stated that Mrs. Byrne's blood pressure was wavering, her pulse moderately weaker, "temperature slightly below normal and respiration within normal limits."

NEW WORKERS BILL URGED TO SOLONS

Changes Approved by Industrial Accident Board; Luce Is Sponsor for Alterations Proposed in Compensation Law

Farmers Not to Be Exempted From Law if Commission's Recommendations Are to Be Accepted by the Legislature

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28.—Re-enactment of the workmen's compensation law of making important changes in its machinery is asked in a series of bills introduced in the Legislature today by Senator Edgar A. Luce of San Diego.
The proposed changes are approved by

The waiting period after injury during which compensation is not payable is reduced from two weeks to ten days; the injured employee, is given a choice of physicians, and security for payment of compensation is no longer left at the option of the employer but is made compulsory.

Employers either must carry insurance or show to the commission financial responsibility to carry their own risks, depositing securities or furnishing bond if required to do so. Another change proposed is that requiring reasonable medical and surgical treatment to be furnished injured employees without limit as to time.

The legislative program of the commission includes also support of measures suggested by the insurance commissioners relating to that official additional powers. The purpose of such legislation, it was said, is to arm the insurance commissioner with full power and authority to supervise and regulate the business of compensation insurance together with other classes of insurance to the end that bad practices in underwriting may be quickly detected and remedied.

PLAYERS TO STAND BY FRATERNITY

Thirty Ball Stars Declare Selves; Tris Speaker Is Leader.

By H. C. Hamilton.
United Press Staff Correspondent.
NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Tris Speaker, Al Denaree and at least thirty other baseball players, ranging in station from the Boston Red Sox and the Brooklyn Dodgers to American Association and International League clubs, are today firm on their decision to stand by David Fultz and his strike of ball players until the figurative cows wander home-ward.
The thirty gathered last night in New York to hear Fultz speak and were surprised by two telegrams—one from Tris Speaker, vowing allegiance to the franchise and the other from Al Denaree, announcing that he never had said he wouldn't strike and inviting Fultz to make that statement just as strong as he pleased.
Speaker's telegram was the bombshell of the meeting. It mentioned the fact that Speaker's name was sore and said he would have to stay in Boston to have it treated. But he said: "I am with the boys. I feel sure they will win. Will stop over on my way home."
New York players were conspicuous by their absence. There were only two players present from the Brooklyn club. Those who attended are:
George Burns, Detroit; Gus Getz, Brooklyn; Larry Gardner, Boston; Jimmy Archer, Chicago; Otto Miller, Brooklyn; Ted Clarke, Cincinnati; Al Carlstrom, Toronto; Grover Hartley, St. Paul; Frank McDermott, Montreal; John Henry Washington, Chicago; William Donk, St. Louis; George Chalmers, Philadelphia; Jack Dalton, Newark; Eddie Burns, Detroit; Bert Daniels, Louisville; John Euseman, Newark; Ed Rulbach, Boston; Al Schacht, Newark; Bill Fisher, Chicago.

Kester to Manage Card Crew Affairs

PALO ALTO, Jan. 26.—E. C. Kester, Stanford '17, a member of the second varsity crew last year, has been elected to manage the Cardinal crew affairs during the coming season.
Regular practice on Lagunita is being held every night by both varsity and freshmen candidates, under the supervision of Rix Maurer and Coach "Husky" Guernsey. The 1918 men are being sent out in the pair-oared shells while the varsity candidates are using the four-oared boat. The first workout in the bay will take place early next week.

Basket Ball

The Oakland unlimited Golds will meet the crack Berkeley 'Y' 145-pound team this evening of February 2 in a game this is arousing no small amount of interest in basketball circles. The game was scheduled for some date back, but the local "Y" players are being sent out in the pair-oared shells while the varsity candidates are using the four-oared boat. The first workout in the bay will take place early next week.

Berkeley 'Y' Wins

The Berkeley 'Y' M. C. A. 145-pound team defeated the Oakland 115-pound team last night at the Berkeley 'Y' M. C. A. The game was a close one, with the local 'Y' players showing some of their best basketballing. The final score was 28 to 25 in favor of the Berkeley 'Y' team.

Berkeley High Wins

The Berkeley High basketball team defeated the Oakland Tech. basketball team last night at the Berkeley High school. The game was a close one, with the local Tech. players showing some of their best basketballing. The final score was 28 to 25 in favor of the Berkeley High team.

Tech High Loses

The Berkeley Tech. basketball team defeated the Oakland Tech. basketball team last night at the Berkeley Tech. school. The game was a close one, with the local Tech. players showing some of their best basketballing. The final score was 28 to 25 in favor of the Berkeley Tech. team.

HERE IS ONE THING THAT IS ABSOLUTELY IMPOSSIBLE

Rheumatism Has Never Been Cured by Liniments or Lotions, and Never Will Be.
You never knew of Rheumatism—that most painful source of suffering—being cured by liniments, lotions or other external applications. And you will never see anything but temporary relief afforded by such makeshifts.
But why be satisfied with temporary relief from the pangs of pain which are sure to return with increased severity, when there is permanent relief within your reach? Science has proven that Rheumatism is a disordered condition of the blood. Now then, can satisfactory results be expected from any treatment that does not reach the blood, the seat of the trouble, and rid the system of the cause of the disease? S. S. S. is one blood remedy that has for more than fifty years been giving relief to even the most aggravated and stubborn cases of Rheumatism. It cleanses and purifies the blood by routing out all traces of the disease. The experience of others who have taken S. S. S. will convince you that it will promptly reach your case. You can obtain this valuable remedy at any drug store.
A valuable book on Rheumatism and its treatment, together with expert medical advice about your own individual case, will be sent absolutely free. Write today to Medical Department, Swift Specific Co., 28 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.—Advertisement.

MARRIED LIFE

Saints Win Easily First League Game

SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY, Jan. 26.—Santa Clara 'Varsity, playing in fine form, defeated the College of the Pacific on the Santa Clara court last night, 21-19. It was a fast game and a large crowd was on hand to witness the defeat of the San Joseans. It was the first league game of the season for the Santa Clara boys. Teamwork was the outstanding feature of the Missionites' play and it was team work that won the game, although the individual work of Don Roy Fowler at the forward position was brilliant. Vicini at center played a stellar game, and "Dutch" Berndt missed hardly a shot. The game was a close one, with the local 'Y' players showing some of their best basketballing. The final score was 28 to 25 in favor of the Berkeley 'Y' team.

SAYS TRAINING MEANS NO WAR

Will Not Make for Militarism, Avers Bishop Fallows of Chicago.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Universal military training in the United States will not make for militarism, Bishop Fallows of Chicago, chaplain of the famous Iron Brigade of the Civil War, today told the Senate committee considering universal training.
"We never can be and never will be a military nation," said Bishop Fallows. "The test of that came at the close of the Civil War when two million men were mustered out, flushed with victory and under the command of a man who became president of the United States. There were predictions that Grant would become dictator. Instead of becoming a dictator, he could not be nominated for a third term, and that great army melted like snowflakes in the stream of American life."
"Universal training," he continued, "is perfectly reasonable and imperative demanded. It is the solemn duty of the American nation to meet any war conditions."

To Electrify Railway in North 200 Miles

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 26.—The cost of the electrification of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway between Oshkosh and Seattle, a distance of 200 miles, as authorized by the directors in New York, is estimated at $7,000,000 and $3,000,000, said H. B. Earling, vice-president of the road, here last night.
The Montana and International power companies, he stated, from which the Milwaukee takes its power on a commercial basis for electrified lines in Montana and Idaho, have secured adequate power sites in the Cascade mountains and along the St. Joe River in the vicinity of Spokane to supply the new unit.
Work on the electrification of the new unit, Vice-President Earling said, will begin as soon as surveys can be made by the electrical engineering department.

WOMAN TO FACE SERIOUS CHARGE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26.—Facing implicit faith in the power of the spirit of her dead mother, who, she says, is constantly with her, to save her, Miss Gertrude Cox received the news in the county jail that she had been indicted by the federal grand jury with little show of emotion.
The true bill accuses Miss Cox of placing a bottle of mercury in the mails with intent to injure and kill Miss Lenore Carr, a fellow employee in a Vermont avenue grocery store. Miss Cox, according to her own confession, placed the poison in candy, which she had purchased for the purpose of addressing it to Miss Carr and to herself, placed it in the mails December 15, 1916.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Ragtime got a kick and a boost in Chicago today. The council committee on Judiciary O. K.'d an ordinance prohibiting ragtime bands from playing the Star-Spangled Banner as part of any melody.
Professor Robert W. Stevens of the University of Chicago, soothed the "rag" artists with the discovery that Brahms and Wagner wrote classic ragtime in their days.

SPANELL TO KNOW FATE BY TONIGHT?

Defendant Nears End of Dramatic Story of Death of Wife and Army Officer; Case Soon Will Be Given to the Jury

SAN ANGELO, Texas, Jan. 6.—The fate of Harry J. Spanell, on trial for the murder of his wife, may be in the hands of the jury before night.

Spanell, who was on the stand practically all day yesterday, occupied several hours in describing the events that led up to his shooting Major M. C. Butler in an automobile at Alpine last July and the death of his wife from bullet wounds at the same time. He reached the narrative of the actual shooting late in the day and although his recital was at times incoherent he told one of the most dramatic stories in Texas court annals.

Judge, jury, court attaches, the aged father of his dead wife, spectators, and even the counsel for both sides, wept openly and Spanell, in the midst of his recital, collapsed on the stand. When he had concluded his story he was helped from the stand by two court attaches.

Spanell's sobbing was echoed by spectators and court officers, whose sympathies had been aroused to a high pitch that was but visibly increased when the witness closed his story with the declaration:

"NEVER SHOT WIFE."

"I never shot my wife," Butler moved out of the way and Crystal fell. Butler also fell.

And as he was about to leave the stand, he sobbed:

"Thank God, I've prayed Almighty God to let me tell it as it is. Thank God, O. Crystall!"

After testimony was introduced to bear out the story told by Spanell and to show Lieutenant-Colonel M. C. Butler was known among his soldiers as "Bull" Butler, the defense in the trial in which Spanell is charged with killing his wife rested today.

Two witnesses testified that Butler had the reputation of being a "woman chaser."

The first witness for the state on rebuttal declared that Colonel Butler's reputation regarding his attentions to women "was good."

Private William Granger of the Sixth Cavalry, which was Butler's regiment, was the first witness today. He testified the soldiers had nicknamed Butler "Bull" and that the officer's reputation as a "woman chaser" was bad.

R. F. Neff, of El Paso, a Texas Guardsman stationed at Marfa, also gave testimony regarding Butler's nickname. He, too, said Butler was marked in his attentions to women.

CHARACTER WITNESSES. Succeeding witnesses gave testimony differing from evidence introduced by the defense regarding Butler's attentions to women.

Dr. B. F. Berkeley, J. D. Jackson, a cattleman, J. W. Yates, a newspaper man, an Mose Slater, county attorney, all of Alpine, agreed that the dead officer's reputation was good.

Nominations Will Close in Queen Contest Tomorrow

MISS ALICE REED, whose friends are working energetically toward her success in the contest for queen of the Ad-Masque pageant.

Only One More Day for Oakland Girls to Register for Big Affair

Only one more day! Tomorrow evening, promptly at 6 o'clock, the list of nominations will be closed for The TRIBUNE'S Ad-Masque Queen Contest.

Although a score of fair maidens of the east bay cities have enrolled their names as aspirants for the honor of presiding as Queen Oakland over the brilliant pageant which will make the second annual Ad-Masque one of the noteworthy social events of the city, there are still others who have been undecided as to whether or not they would enter the race. Now is the time for them to decide and to come forward as candidates.

There is no disadvantage in entering the race at the last moment. Success in this contest depends entirely on the energy and ambition displayed by the candidates and not at all upon priority. The last contestant to enroll stands an equal chance with the first to carry off the palm of victory.

The TRIBUNE has undertaken the task of conducting the Ad-Masque Queen Contest at the request of the committee appointed by the advertising bureau of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, which is conducting the contest. The committee decided that a popular vote would be the best method of selection and The TRIBUNE was asked to conduct the balloting under its own conditions.

A prize of $200 in gold has been offered by The TRIBUNE as a reward for the successful candidate. Other prizes will be given in proportion to the number of subscriptions turned in.

TRIBUTE TO AID. All contestants are invited by the management of The TRIBUNE to visit the office and the Ad-Masque Queen Contest bureau for the purpose of acquainting themselves with the methods used in conducting the contest. The records containing the standing of the contestants and all matters pertaining thereto are open at any time for the inspection of the candidates or their immediate friends. In fact, the general public is invited to inspect the methods employed by The TRIBUNE Contest bureau governing the race.

Candidates will be given every assistance by The TRIBUNE in furthering their advancement in the contest. Subscription solicitors will be furnished to work with the candidates in whatever district of the city they may suggest. Each candidate will be treated with absolute impartiality and fairness. The TRIBUNE is playing no favorites and is allowing no member of a family of an employee to participate in the contest. Particular care is being taken that each candidate shall have a square deal and that not the slightest partiality shall be shown to any one.

The contest for Queen of the Ad-Masque will close Saturday evening, February 10, at 10 o'clock. The counting of the ballots will be supervised by a committee composed of prominent business men, who will announce the result.

TIME LIMITED. "Time is limited. Do it now!" That is the warning sent to local firms by Kent Castle, chairman of the Ad-Masque stunts committee arranging for the monster advertising pageant which is the big feature of the Ad-Masque.

Castle has announced the following rules governing the size and space to be occupied by the various advertising stunts:

Stunts having floats or other portable solids must not take more

PLAN TO ADVANCE CLOCKS FAVORED

Daylight Saving Convention Outlines Details of the New Move.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—A plan to set the clocks of the United States ahead an hour May 1 to save daylight until September 30, when considered by the Daylight Saving National Convention which begins here Monday.

"This plan," said Borough President Marcus M. Marks of New York, who fathered the idea in this country, which was so successfully used in Europe last year, would save the United States $30,000,000 in artificial light and fuel alone.

"This plan has been heartily endorsed by leading commercial bodies in Chicago, Pittsburgh, New York, Rochester, Detroit, Cleveland and elsewhere.

PLAN SIMPLE. "The plan is simply that between May 1 and September 30, when daylight comes so early, we set the clocks of the country an hour ahead. That gets the country to work an hour earlier and permits it to quit while it is still broad daylight, thus obviating the necessity for so much artificial light.

"To this national convention the chambers of commerce and boards of trade throughout the country, governors of all states, the mayors of over 150 cities, the governor general of Canada and other Canadian representatives, the American Bankers Association, the American Railroad Association, the American Federation of Labor and various other commercial and financial labor and scientific associations have been invited to send delegates and responses already received indicate an exceedingly large attendance.

LEADING MEN IN FAVOR. "Such leading men as Henry P. Davison of J. P. Morgan & Company; Otto T. Barnard, president of the New York Trust Company; Frederick D. Underwood, president of the Erie Railroad; Frank T. Trumbull, president of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad; and Arthur Lehman, of Lehman Bros. bankers, favor its adoption in the United States.

"I call attention to the great benefits which would accrue to the general health of the working people through the adoption of daylight saving which would be afforded.

"There is a bill before Congress by Representative Borah, for this daylight saving plan which we hope to have made a law."

Daring Jail Delivery Frustrated; 3 Arrested

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 26.—Guarding two pretty girls as they left the Fulton county jail, early today, the county officers frustrated a plan for a daring jail delivery, noted Western gang bands convicted here of highway robbery, and Harry Pullen, a forger.

Lillian McNamie, 16, Pullen's sweetheart, and Pearl Parker, 17, and Sam Lemming, 27, are held charged with aiding prisoners to escape.

Officers overheard Carr and Pullen's conversation referring to the planned escape, and later discovered and flies, propped (used to soften metals) and sheets to be torn and used as ropes. Carr is known in Seattle, Denver and other Western towns.

Sale of Hill Steamer Minnesota Confirmed

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 26.—Sale of the Hill steamer Minnesota was confirmed today by L. W. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad. The ship is said to have been sold for $2,750,000. Hill said the details of the Minnesota's sale had not been set, but that W. P. Kenney, vice-president of the company, had made the deal. The Minnesota is in San Francisco bay.

floor space than 9 feet by 15 feet, nor must they be higher than 8 feet. No live stock allowed.

Stunts comprised of individuals or portions of such stunts are without limit as to size, as these are without limitations are only placed on solid or portable floats.

The Pacific Coast Rattan Company, which purchased the ten-minute concession" at the auction held at the advertising bureau's luncheon Tuesday, is preparing to enter a unique feature in the big pageant. The company paid $150 for the privilege of the exclusive use of the floor for ten minutes during the night of the Ad-Masque.

George Cummings is arranging for the presentation of a fantasy in pantomime which will center about the Ad-Masque Queen, and which will introduce the various Pacific coast cities represented in the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's Association, which holds its annual convention in Oakland the latter part of May.

Visit Battlefields, Advice to Wilson

LONDON, Jan. 26.—President Wilson is advised today by the Pall Mall Gazette to visit the battle-torn fields and villages of Northern France to get a new perspective on the war and peace.

Such a visit, the paper says, would cause President Wilson to change his mind concerning a lot of things. The Pall Mall Gazette is known as Lloyd-George's paper.

MEXICANS RESENT MOVE BY LANSING

State Department Objects to Provisions in Carranza Constitution.

(By Stuart Godwin) Staff Correspondent International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Bitter resentment throughout all Mexico is certain to follow Secretary Lansing's objection to certain portions of the new Carranza constitution.

That resentment was very plain in Mexican circles here today. The action of the secretary in forwarding his objections direct to First Chief Carranza were characterized as "unwarranted interference in the internal affairs of a sovereign state."

It was accepted generally that the future relations between the two governments are certain to be materially affected. The American protest deals directly in opposition to the following provisions of the new Mexican constitution adopted at the Queretaro convention just held:

"The article vesting Mexico's executive with power to expropriate property without judicial recourse."

The article providing that civil and commercial companies cannot own properties of a greater area than is necessary to accomplish the purpose for which they were formed and giving the executive power to designate such area.

The article providing there shall be no exception from taxation.

The article stipulating that there shall be no special concessions given to exploiters of oil lands and allowing companies now operating only one year in which to secure new concessions to protect rights already acquired.

The article giving the executive power to expel any one at will.

The articles, excepting the last, are held by the American state department to be confiscatory and tending toward nationalization of property at the expense of innocent foreign holders. The expulsion clause is said to be in direct contravention of the usual practice of nations.

SCOTTISH BARD IS PAID HONOR

Music and Speeches Heard at Memorial Meeting at Ebell Hall.

Outstanding both in the merit of the music and addresses was the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns, held by the St. Andrew's Society and the MacDonald Order of Scottish Clans in the Ebell hall last night.

A surprise feature of the entertainment gathering, many of whom had relatives in the trenches, was the singing by Miss Anna McManis, a patriotic song with which she cheered the British "Tommy" at the front. For eighteen months Miss McManis sang to the trench-weary soldiers back of the battle lines and has been given a warm reception by Oakland Scots celebration.

Dr. A. K. Crawford was chairman. Robert Burns, saint, singer, rebel and lover, was the theme of a studious review of the life and works of the poet by Rev. A. W. Palmer, Burns, said Rev. Palmer, had been characterized as the patron saint of Scotland. Because he had known remorse and the other consequences of sinning, the bard had been inspired to the lofty deeds selected in his poetry and philosophy. Rev. Palmer said Burns' corn of cant and insincerity in religion and of his life-long struggle in the cause of democracy.

Scottish artists who entertained with Scotch music and dances were: Pius Sowersby and Cant, who gave bagpipe selections; Professor Mathew and Highland dancers; and the following singers: Miss Lucy Ann de Mar, Miss Marie Grant, Miss Grace Coombes and R. M. Battison.

AUTO PLUNGES INTO RESIDENCE; DRIVER JAILED

Claremont Family Is Rudely Awakened in Night

Joseph Bonnett and family of 6419 Claremont avenue, were rudely awakened at an early hour this morning when a big automobile driven by Arthur S. Lind, 24 years of age, and son of Frank O. Lind of 5321 James avenue, hurtled the curb, plunging through a fence and crashed against the side of the house.

A hasty investigation on the part of Bonnett resulted in a telephone call to the police of the Northern Station who sped to the scene and arrested Lind, whom they alleged was under the influence of liquor. He will be charged under that section of the motor vehicle act covering the usage of automobiles by persons in that condition. According to the police the car was seen traveling in an easterly course along Clifton street and into Claremont avenue where it took to the sidewalk, until its course was stopped by the dwelling. The auto was badly damaged.

SMUGGLERS BUSY DOWN ON BORDER

Plan to Use Withdrawal of the Pershing Forces As Cloak for Operations.

EL PASO, Jan. 26.—Smugglers are planning to use the withdrawal of the American troops from Mexico as an excuse to smuggle goods across the border without payment of the export duty to the Carranza government, according to a Carranza official here.

The plan is to use the troop movements to veil the illicit exportation of cattle, hides and other goods upon which export duties are levied.

HOT WATER

THE PROCESS of heating water for domestic purposes has been revolutionized in the past few years through the introduction and perfection of gas water heaters, until today it is no longer a problem to secure an abundance of hot water quickly and economically in any dwelling, large or small.

Today, in the countless thousands of homes where gas water heaters are installed, an abundance of hot water is available for any purpose. By some types of heaters the water is heated instantly at the turn of a faucet, by others within a few minutes after lighting the heaters, and all without labor, inconvenience or discomfort and at a nominal cost for gas.

TIRED WORKING MEN

A Local Druggist Suggests a Remedy for Overworked, Run-Down Men.

The following letter from Manager Hodas recounts the experience and condition of many Oakland men. Read this letter and our offer which follows:

Brooklyn, N. Y.: "I am a general office manager, and became so nervous and run-down in health that I lost my appetite and finally my health broke down completely, largely because of overwork. I tried Beef, Iron and Wine, and other remedies without help. I saw Vinol advertised, and soon after taking it I noticed an improvement. I now have a hearty appetite, sleep better, feel better and have gained considerable in weight." Samuel Hodas, 501 Stone ave.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains the oldest and most famous tonics, viz., beef and cod liver peptones, iron, manganese peptones, and glycerophosphates.

We ask every run-down, overworked man in Oakland to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be returned if it fails to help them as it did Mr. Hodas.

WILL U. S. HAVE PRESIDENT FOR DAY? QUESTION

Queer Problem Hinges on Law and Day of the Week

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—A nation without an executive, and without a legislative body, is what this United States may be March 4 unless constitutional sharks, trying to prevent it, succeed.

Sunday, March 4, is the death day of the sixty-fourth Congress, and of President Wilson's first term.

Three precedents are found in American history—in 1821, 1849 and in 1877—for adjourning Congress on March 3 at noon, as Sunday fell on the 4th. No precedent is found for continuing its sessions until the 5th.

A resolution introduced by Senator Walsh, Montana, declares it is the sense of the Senate that the present session expire on March 4, at noon. It has been referred to the Senate Judiciary committee.

No decision has yet been reached as to when President Wilson and Vice-President Marshall will take their oaths of office. Either could, if necessary, take it the 3rd or, again, be sworn in on Sunday, the 4th, and then, again, on Monday, as a "guarantee" against fault in doing it Sunday.

Constitutional experts say the oath administered on Sunday would be completely legal and binding.

JAPANESE COLONIES MAY BE FORMED

Big Lease Deals in Mexico Are Declared to Be Under Way.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26.—Announcement of a plan for the leasing of a large ranch just south of the Mexican border, near Mexicali, to a Japanese syndicate today brought to light the fact that the syndicate, which is allied with the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, is seeking other large ranches in Lower California, with the intention of colonizing these with Japanese coolies. Agents of the syndicate are said to have stated that the intention is to bring the coolies direct from Japan by the T. K. K. vessels to the Gulf of Lower California.

Just what Japanese are behind the movement cannot be definitely learned here, or at Calexico and El Centro, where offers for leases on Mexican cotton ranches have been made. San Francisco and Los Angeles Japanese are said to be heavily interested.

Thus far the Pacific Land and Cattle Company and the California Land and Cattle Company have been approached by the concern and offered liberal prices for their leases on Mexican acreage. The companies, it is understood, are to secure, if possible, an invitation from President Wilson, for the syndicate to bring in 500 Japanese laborers as the beginning of the colony. This invitation, it is believed, is sought to overcome Japanese opposition to such Mexican colonization, for fear of friction with the United States.

WILSON FAVORS LARGER U. S. ARMY

President's Solution for Preparedness Does Not Include Compulsory Service.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—President Wilson today declared that perhaps the real solution of the preparedness problem might be a standing army of professional soldiers of sufficient size to give real preparedness.

The President voiced his opposition to compulsory universal military service in the United States. He said that such a system does not meet the "difficulties" facing the country in its efforts to establish adequate defense.

At the same time he admitted that "physical training is needed" and declared the legislative and executive branches of the government are giving "serious consideration" to what is the "wise thing for the defense of the country."

The President made his declarations regarding preparedness to representatives of the National Security League, who called to urge some form of universal training.

The President opened his remarks by saying he would have been more impressed by the delegation's contentions if they had been expressed "in more restrained language."

"Any brief service in the army of the United States withdraws men from civil pursuits just as much as the recent service on the border does," he said. "A standing army with professional soldiers prevents that occasional and frequent withdrawal of men from civil pursuits. It may be inevitable, but what you are proposing does not meet the difficulty which you condemn. These things are of the utmost intricacy and difficulty and are not to be settled ex cathedra. And yet, notwithstanding the fact that I think you have gone too far, I will say for you that, of course, this will have my most serious consideration. "It is receiving serious consideration with the country and we in Washington, of course, share and feel the great tides of opinion in the United States."

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 26.—The annual meeting of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association began here today with delegates from the Northwest in attendance. Eleven trustees will be chosen, who in turn will select officers of the association for the year. A president, two vice-presidents, a secretary and a treasurer are to be chosen by the new board.

Paper Makers Buy Large Timber Tract

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Jan. 26.—Options have been closed by the representatives of the International Paper Company, an eastern concern, on more than 100,000 acres of spruce and fir timber on the lower Umpqua and Smith rivers, and cruisers have started to estimate the amount of the stand of timber. The purchase price of the timber will exceed $3,000,000, and it places in the control of the eastern concern all the available spruce in the Coast Bay district suitable for paper pulp manufacture.

DENTAL HEAD NAMED. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26.—Dr. John F. Biddle of Pittsburgh was elected president of the American Institute of Dental Teachers here. Dr. G. S. Millberry, San Francisco, was named as a member of the executive board. The next convention will be held in Chicago.

Administration Faces Extra Session Hope of Rushing Program at Ebb

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The administration's hope of pushing its legislative program through Congress at the present session was at its lowest ebb today. The failure of the Democratic Senate caucus last night to reach an agreement on the program to be acted upon in the few weeks left before March 4 and adjournment has made it practically certain that the administration legislative schedule cannot be acted on or that an extra session must be called.

Today the legislative situation in the Senate is back in the hands of the steering committee of the majority side. The committee will wield the pruning knife on the legislation to which it seeks to commit the Democratic party for support at the present session and will report back to the caucus at "a later date." The corrupt practice measure so earnestly advocated by President Wilson and his railroad legislation, including the compulsory investigation provision designed to prevent strikes and lockouts may go by the board. It was pointed out today by Democratic senators that there are but five weeks and two days left in which to pass the desired legislation. Warm opposition to the administration program has come from many quarters, too.

On top of all this legislation, the big appropriation bills, fifteen in number, must be passed, regardless of the program of tact agreements of either party.

CHILDREN TO MEET DOGS AT PANTAGES

Oakland's children will have the opportunity of meeting the most wonderful dogs in the world tomorrow, when Mme. Olympia Desvall, famous trainer of animals, will hold a reception of the little ones after the matinee at the Oakland Pantages. These remarkable animals are the most valuable in the entire world. They have appeared before every crowned head in Europe, and for a solid season Mme. Desvall was the headline feature at the New York Hippodrome. Mme. Desvall brought the finest Swedish army dogs to that country. She is the wife of one of the most famous breeders of blooded dogs in the world. Every dog in the act is a pedigreed thoroughbred.
